Mexican Rebels Are Reported Routed

REBELLION ENDED
BY GOMEZ DEFEAT,
DECLARES CALLES

Government Reports That Enemies' Casualties Will

WITH SMALL BAND

Calles Sends Telegram of Congratulation to General Escobar Who Commanded Federals.

Mexico City, October 10.—(AP)— President Calles, through his chief of staff, General Alvarez, announced tonight that the revolution was completely crushed by an overwhelming federal victory, in which the Gomez-Almada rebel forces were overwhelmed and the two rebel leaders were in flight with only about 100 followers.

This, with the capture and execution of General Serrano and his principal adherents, mean, according to the Calles government, that within one week from the commencement of the revolutionary attempt the rebellion has been stamped out completely.

Expect Gomez Capture.
Presidential headquarters expressed the opinion that Gomez and Almada and those with them will be hunted down within a short time, or else will degenerate into mere bandits hiding in the hills.

A presidential statement issued through General Alvarez, tonight announcing the victory, says:
"In their first encounter with the government forces the group of traitors under Gomez and Almada were completely defeated. The rebel leaders

Bootlegger Who Slew Wife
Is Preparing for Mur-

Cincinnati, October 10.—(AP)—The Hamilton county jail today became officially the law office of George Remus.
Seated at a large table, piled high with papers, documents, books of record and correspondence, Remus labored through the day drawing his plans to defend himself for killing his wife, Imogene.
"I'll work day and night," Remus said.
He spent a good part of his time this afternoon examining a ledger containing columns of figures and in reading through typewritten data. Occasional he made notes.

THE TIMES IN WHICH WE LIVE

We only live once. That being so, aren't you glad we live in the present age? It is a good time to live and we all enjoy untold advantages over past generations.

For instance. What would your grandmother have given for a newspaper like The Constitution, bringing daily in its advertising columns the descriptions and prices of the choicest articles she needed?

You may sit at home, study the advertising, and make your purchases with minimum effort and great-

OFFICIAL LINDBERGH PROGRAM FOR TODAY

Following is the official program for "Lindbergh day" today as released by the committee in charge:

1 P. M.—Assembly at Candler field, band concert.
1:30 P. M.—Arrival of department of commerce plane, piloted by Lieutenant Phil R. Love and bearing Donald Keyhoe, of the Guggenheim foundation and aide to Colonel Lindbergh, and other officials of the tour.

2 P. M.—Colonel Lindbergh arrives (whistles all over Atlanta and surrounding town to announce his landing to the general public).
Welcome by Governor Hardman, Mayor Ragsdale, Mayor Eugene
King, Mayor W. J. Lloyd and Mayor C. H. Livey.

2:10 P. M.—Departure from Candler field. Official party will be preceded by City Fire Chief Cody and motorcycle escort and will be accompanied by governor's staff. Colonel Lindbergh will pass through College Park and East Point en route to Atlanta.

2:40 P. M.—Arrival at junction of Whitehall and South Forsyth streets, where parade will form. Line of march: Whitehall, Peachtree, West Peachtree, North avenue. Colonel Lindbergh's party, escorted by the Old Guard, will proceed to Pershing Point, and others in the escort will proceed to the Tech stadium.

3 P. M.—Arrival at Pershing Point, where Colonel Lindbergh will place wreath presented by Mrs. Sam D. Jones, president of the War Mothers' Service Star Legion, on the memorial. At this point, Colonel Lindbergh will be decorated with an emblem by the Atlanta chapter, U. D. C.

3:05 P. M.—Departure for United States Disabled Veterans' hospital on Peachtree road. Party will be provided with an honorary escort of the American Legion, and the legion auxiliary, in charge of Asa Warren Candler, commander of the Georgia department of the legion.

welcome to hospital by Colonel George L. Johnson, commander of the hospital; Frank Kempton, commander Atlanta post No. 1 of the American Legion; Mrs. Hazzard, president of the legion auxiliary of Atlanta post, in charge of arrangements for the hospital exercises, and William E. Tate, national commander of the Disabled American Veterans of the World War. Immediately following Colonel Lindbergh will make a brief tour of the hospital to visit the bed-ridden veterans.

3:30 P. M.—Departure for Georgia Tech stadium.

3:45 P. M.—Arrival at stadium for exercises.

4:15 P. M.—Departure for Biltmore hotel for a period of rest.

7 P. M.—Formal banquet at the Ansley hotel.

12 Men Wounded
By Crazy Negro
In Death Battle

Deranged Man Surrounded in Barricaded House
by Police and Slain
After Long Fight.

Birmingham, Ala., October 10.—(AP)— His body riddled with bullets from machine guns, rifles, shotguns and pistols in the hands of more than 100 police officers, Charlie Pinkard, negro, was brought out of a barricaded house late today after he had shot and probably fatally wounded Deputy Sheriff Sam Williams, seriously wounded 11 other persons and for an hour and a half successfully defied all efforts to dislodge him.

Pinkard, who operated an ice cream stand, became suddenly crazed when George Kirkhoff, city sanitary inspector, attempted to inspect his place of business. Picking up a knife, he slashed the throat of Kirkhoff and fled to a vacant house near by.

Deputy Sheriff Slain.
A call was sent to the police, and Williams, responding, attempted to enter the house and arrest Pinkard.
He was met at the door by pistol fire that dropped him with a bullet wound in his abdomen. He died at a hospital an hour later while physicians were preparing for a blood transfusion in an effort to save his life.

A riot call was sent in and 500 patrolmen, armed with rifles, pistols and shotguns, hurried to the house, which is located within a few blocks of the downtown district.

A fusillade of shots greeted the officers, at least, that a favorable decision on this proposition would contribute to more friendly Franco-American relations.

FRENCH LOAN PLAN
APPROVED BY U. S.

America Hopes To Get Better Treatment in Controversy Over Tariff
as Result.

Washington, October 10.—(AP)—Formal announcement was made today by the state department that the French ambassador here had been officially informed that the American government would have no objection to the refunding of the $100,000,000 8 per cent loan of 1920, made to the French government by American bankers.

Coincidentally, it was announced that the American charge at Paris had been instructed to deliver to the French foreign office the American reply to the last French tariff note in which France is asked to restore the minimum duties on American imports pending negotiation of a general commercial treaty.

Note Held Up.
Delivery of the note was held up pending a final decision on the administration's attitude on the loan refunding proposal, which recently was urged anew by the Paris government.

It was the belief of some cabinet officers, at least, that a favorable decision on this proposition would contribute to more friendly Franco-American relations.

Objection to the refunding plan had been raised by Chairman Borah, of the senate foreign relations committee, and others. After conference with Secretaries Kellogg and Hoover, however, Senator Borah withdrew his objection in this instance, explaining that while he was opposed to such loans in principle pending a settlement of the French debt, he would not press the point in this case because of the importance to the country generally of the tariff negotiations.

No Advance Involved.
In its announcement that it would act favorably on the refunding of the $100,000,000 loan when requested to do so by American bankers at interest, the state department said "this refund transaction involves no advance of new money to France."
The refunding is sought so that France can have the benefit of a much lower interest rate now prevailing in the New York market.

Besides urging restoration of the minimum French duties, the American note invites the French government to point out instances of tariff administration about which it has complaints and also agrees to a review of plant quarantines provided France will make a like review of its own plant regulations and quarantines affecting American imports.

Georgia's Guest Today

COLONEL CHARLES A. LINDBERGH

OIL VICTORY GIVES
U. S. $5,000,000

Sinclair Is Ousted From Teapot Dome; Supreme Court Decides Leases Obtained by Fraud.

Washington, October 10.—(AP)—The supreme court's cancellation of leases to naval oil lands in Wyoming held by the Sinclair interests will bring the government more than $5,000, 000 in money and property.

The largest item is $3,000,000 representing proceeds from sale of oil from the reserve from the time receivers were appointed in 1924 until October 1 last. It now is held by A.
E. Watts, of New York, vice president of Sinclair's Consolidated Oil Co., and Captain H. A. Stuart, U. S.
N. the receivers.

Of that sum, approximately $480, 000 would normally have been paid to the government as royalties, in addition to royalties of $342,278 on earnings of $2,220,000 before the re-ceivership.

Oil Tanks Returned.
The court decision returns to the government two oil tanks at Portsmouth, N. H., with a 300,000 barrel capacity, built at an estimated cost of $1,000,000 and 27 tanks which have been built on the Wyoming reserve.

Sixty-three oil producing and ten dry wells have been drilled in the leased area and 12 gas wells have been closed. The cost of each well during the year were 70 to 1-2 per cent of the indictments.

Grand Stand Plays by Dry
Agents Barred

Doran Tells Workers Arms Must Be Used Only in Self Defense.

Washington, October 10.—(AP)—Spectacular raids on night clubs and cabarets will not be tolerated by Prohibition Commissioner Doran, who today sent out a new manual of instruction for dry agents.

The agents were ordered to cease the practice of dramatically rushing into cabarets with drawn revolvers in making raids. Arms, the commissioner said, should be used only in self defense, as their unnecessary display encourages shooting. Agents, however, may still use shotguns, rifles and machine guns in operating against moonshiners in the mountainous sections.

The commissioner also admonished agents against unnecessary drinking of liquors to obtain evidence. Drinking, the order stipulates, should be used only strictly in the line of duty.
Federal prohibition agents have given no indication of conducting a general campaign against malt extract proprietors, who Andrew J. Volstead, author of the dry act and now legal adviser to the northwest prohibition enforcement unit, has declared are violating section 18 of the dry act. Commissioner Doran said that prosecutions of such establishments would be controlled by the question of intent.

Enforcement of prohibition gained 2 per cent during the year ending last June 30 over the preceding year, the commissioner said, adding that convictions during the year were 70 to 1-2 per cent of the indictments.

PEACE MONUMENT CEREMONIES HELD

Wreath Laid on Piedmont Park Bronze Commemorates Sixteenth Anniversary of Its Unveiling

A peace that silenced the guns of '61 and rid the country of its sectional animosity was commemorated here Monday afternoon when the historic Old Guard of Atlanta, on the 16th anniversary of the peace monument unveiling at Piedmont park, laid a ceremonial wreath before the celebrated bronze.

In striking contrast to the day, 16 years ago, when 30,000 militiamen from the east and north braved a driving rain to witness the unveiling, ceremonies Monday afternoon were conducted under the bright blue of October skies.

Six prominent young matrons of Atlanta, who as children in 1911, unveiled the monument, Monday placed the floral emblem before the statue.
They were Mrs. Earl Wood, formerly Miss Marion Clarke; Mrs. Walter
Mallory, formerly Miss Alice Orme;
Mrs. Lansing Shields, formerly Miss Gladys Byrd; Mrs. Glenville Giddings, formerly Miss Dorothy Ark-wright; Mrs. Eloise Robinson Dickson, formerly Miss Eloise Robinson; and Mrs. George Raines, formerly Miss Frances Winship.

SPIRIT OF ST. LOUIS TO ARRIVE
AT CANDLER FIELD ABOUT 2 P. M.

Busy Program During Afternoon Faced by Flier; Will Decorate War Mother's Memorial, Visit Veterans' Hospital and Be Guest of Honor at Banquet.

Atlanta's famed spirit, a spirit hailed and acclaimed in the four ends of the nation, will bow today in obeisance for the first time before the spirit of another city as a supreme tribute to a dauntless lad whose epoch-making flight across the Atlantic carved his name imperishably on civilization's historical scrolls when "The Spirit of St. Louis," bearing Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh floats gracefully down on Candler field in the presence of hundreds of thousands of enthusiastic spectators.

"Keep Order At Any Cost,"
Police Told

Constabulary To Have Hands
Full in Handling Candler Field Crowd.

Atlanta's guardians of the law will be on their mettle this afternoon in handling the crowds expected at Candler field for the arrival of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh from Jacksonville. Strong cordons of policemen and deputized firemen will be stationed around the field, while a high barbed wire fence will act as a barrier to keep too enthusiastic souls from invading the landing space.

There is danger to both flier and welcomers when the people crowd onto the landing field, and arrangements have been made by Police Chief James L. Beavers to make sure that this danger does not arise. More policemen will keep the crowd from manhandling their hero in their ecstasy of worship than there are secret service men trailing the president.

Demonstrations such as almost wrecked both Lindbergh and his immortal "We" monoplane in Paris will be carefully guarded against at Candler field this afternoon. As Chief Beavers expressed it Monday night:
"The police will not get hard-boiled unless the crowd does, but we will maintain order at any cost. We hope to have the cooperation of the public in keeping people off the flying field."

To Help Clear Lane.
A lane clear of traffic for the parade from Candler field to the city will be maintained by the police, Chief Beavers said. Certain streets will be blocked to travel early this afternoon and no parking will be allowed.

Arrangements for the welcome at the aviation field include the swearing in of 119 firemen as special police officers to aid in keeping order. A detail of more than 45 policemen has been assigned to duty at the field and 300 cadets from a local military school are to form a line of honor for Colonel Lindbergh from Candler field to the waiting automobiles.

Police Captain A. J. Holcomb will be in charge of officers at Candler field and will station his men in such a manner as to keep everybody outside the police line and off the landing field. Captain Grover C. Pain will be in charge of officers in the city, having supervision of the men who will keep the streets clear of traffic and parked automobiles. Lieutenant Carroll, with 11 motorcycle officers, will report at Candler field to begin the procession into the city and to its destination.

Never before have the people of this city prepared such a reception for a visitor and never before has the youthful hero of the New York-to-Paris flight faced a warmer or more cordial welcome. Spontaneously and sincerely the entire community has crystallized into one gigantic wave of welcome for the intrepid pilot and when he soars down on Candler field at 2 o'clock he will be met by a crowd that personifies the admiration, the love, the sheer appreciation of the courage and grit that the entire nation and the whole world has bestowed on Lindbergh.

Bursting in Admiration.
When the world-renowned hero lands, when he speaks at Grant field, when he sits as guest of honor at the banquet at the Ansley hotel Tuesday night, when he meets Atlanta's Gold Star Mothers at Pershing Point and when he greets the shell-torn veterans at the United States hospital, Lindbergh will be greeted by men, women and children of Atlanta whose hearts are fairly bursting in their adoration of the unassuming lad who discovered new worlds in aviation and whose feat proved to be one of the greatest forward steps in the fight to conquer the air.

In the crowds in Atlanta will be men who watched with tant nerves the flight of Lindbergh, men who sat with tense interest as instruments clicked off the progress of the hero

Here They Are Folks! Your First "Gimme - a - Sentence"

BY PAUL STEVENSON.

Well, The Constitution's "Gimme-a-Sentence" game got under way with a little fun around here by getting the folk to thinking up clever plays on words and sending them in for publication. The first sentence, through the white house spokesman, he selected the word century. Cal's sentence is as follows: "You ordered corn but we century by mistake." Now figure that out and listen.

Any word can be selected that can be twisted around to make any kind of sense or nonsense. Take the word "picture" for instance. The wife upbraids her husband: "You ought not to have picture teeth before every body," she says. Then there is the old song title of the vaudeville monologist. He takes the word "picket"

hence we have: "It'll never get well if you picket." Ha, ha, ha!—It's awful isn't it? See if you can get any crazier than that and send in the sentence to the "Gimme-a-Sentence" editor of the Constitution.

Miss Una Rogers, of 1012 St. Charles avenue, jumped in the game Monday. "Give this to the man who was big enough fool to open such a silly contest," she wrote.

Here's "this" contributed by Miss Rogers, who used the word "pencil" for her inspiration:

"Why every kid has heard of Pennsylvania. Perchance you will open CILated lids and see my point. By not living in a PEN CILicious garments are off worn. I will cease lest by excessive use of the PEN CILiosis will be incurred."

We like people who can think up words like "pencilicious" don't you? H. H. Wimpes, of the Piedmont hotel, demon advertising man, rushed in with his entry. He used the word "depart." Here's his sentence:

"The darkey parson said, 'white meat' is de part of de chicken I likes best!"

The word "beggar" was used by C. F. Sewell, of the Atlanta Terminal company. Here is his sentence:

"The beggar will beggar starve." Send 'em in folk, the crazier the better!

United Fruit Company White Plane To Pass Over City at 11 Today

A large white monoplane, "Tela," owned by the United Fruit company, will pass over the city about 11 o'clock this morning, en route to New Orleans, La., on a non-stop flight from Washington, D. C. The plane, equipped with a Fokker motor, left Washington about 3 o'clock and is due to arrive in New Orleans shortly before dark tonight. It will follow along the route of the Crescent Limited.

OGLETHORPE RECEIVES DONATION OF $1,000

Boosting the fund of $250,000 being raised in Atlanta by Oglethorpe university to make effective the recent offer of $250,000 made by J. T. Lupton, of Chattanooga, Tenn., on condition that an equal amount be raised here, President Thorne Jacobs announced Monday a gift of $1,000 by Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Perkins, of Atlanta, parents of Bill Perkins, football player at Oglethorpe.

CHEST IS TERMED 'GOOD BUSINESS'

The Community Chest as an enterprise of good business for Atlanta, with an intelligent plan, direction, and purpose, was presented Monday afternoon to a meeting of the campaign organization by W. R. C. Smith, one of the leaders in the cause, in sounding the keynote of the campaign for public support for the Chest which opens October 21.

"This is a business matter," said Mr. Smith. "The Community Chest deserves the respectful consideration of business men, because in every detail its work is that of human salvage and reconstruction, of economic development, of an enhancement of the community's money values and human values."

"The campaign this year is better organized on business lines than ever before, and we feel that it is more definitely assured of success." F. A. Wilson-Lawrence, general chairman, and Roy LeCraw, general of the individual subscribers' division, outlined plans for a campaign organization of 325 field workers, which should be completed by the end of the week, they said.

"We are resolved to make this a short campaign," said Mr. Wilson-Lawrence, "and there is every prospect of its successful termination within a few days. Representative men have informed us that there is less resistance to the Community Chest idea, a great belief in the Community Chest's intelligent method and purpose, in every walk of Atlanta's life this year than ever before."

"We have sought to make the campaign this year one of an organization of salesmen," explained Mr. LeCraw, "knowing that we have a definite idea to sell, and something of great value to the community."

Progress on the organization work and enthusiastic assurances of success in the campaign were discussed by Milton Dargatz, Jr., Jackson P. Dick, Julian V. Boehm and the Rev. N. R. H. Moor, colonels of the individual subscribers' division; Fred Gould, general of the branch office division; E. A. Atkinson, general of the utility division, and Joe Reed, general of the commercial division.

Merger Is Anticipated Of Chemical Warfare Ordinance Departments

Merger of the chemical warfare department of the fourth corps area with the ordinance department is expected as the result of orders received here transferring Lieutenant Norman Gillett, formerly in charge of chemical warfare department, to the Edgewood, Md., arsenal, it was announced at corps headquarters Monday.

Colonel Sydney Underwood, chief of the ordinance department, will have charge of both departments. Another change, to take place in the air service, is pending, according to notice received by Colonel Charles Danforth, chief of the air service in the fourth corps area. No definite instructions have been received by Colonel Danforth, but it was stated that the change is due to the fact that there is only one air field in the fourth corps area.

BAPTISTS' TRAINING SCHOOL IS OPENED

Opening of the senior B. Y. P. U. training school of the Second Baptist church was held Monday night, with Dr. Carter Helm Jones, pastor of the church, delivering the lecture on the B. Y. P. U. manual. A talk on the B. Y. P. U. administration was given by Walter Thomas. Meetings of the school will be held throughout the week.

The twenty-seventh anniversary of the B. Y. P. U. was observed at the church Sunday night with an elaborate program. A birthday cake with 27 candles was presented by Mrs. Elizabeth Eley Graham. Dr. Jones, Miss Mary Robert, Paul Etheridge and other leaders in the union activities spoke at the gathering.

JOHN BURKE WEDS MISS MIRIAM ALLEN

Atlanta friends of John M. Burke, Jr., received word Monday of his recent marriage to Miss Miriam Alice Allen, of Minneapolis. Mr. Burke was formerly credit manager of the Fourth National bank here and served as president of the Atlanta chapter of the American Institute of Banking at one time. He is now cashier of the Citizens Bank & Trust Co., at Tampa, Fla.

HAYES POISON PROBE MAY CONCLUDE TODAY

Blakely, Ga., October 10.—(P)—The Early county grand jury reconvened here this morning to continue its investigation of the Hayes' poisoning case.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris Hayes, 60-year-old couple, are both in jail accused of having administered poison to their 16-year-old daughter-in-law. The deaths of two sons of the couple, which occurred under mysterious circumstances, two weeks prior to the death of the daughter-in-law, are also under investigation.

The jury will continue its investigation throughout tomorrow and will make known its findings early Wednesday morning.

The death of Hayes' mother, which occurred last April and the death of a daughter, will also be probed by the jury.

Hayes is now held in the county jail here and his wife is in the Randolph county jail at Cuthbert. Both vehemently deny the charge.

MECHANIC SEVERELY BURNED IN GARAGE FIRE

C. W. Michael, 40, of 66 North avenue, a mechanic, suffered severe burns about the body and head Monday when greasy waste in the pit of a garage, where he was working, became ignited. Michael was rescued from the flames by fellow workers and rushed to Grady hospital, where first aid was administered.

The origin of the fire was unknown, but it is believed it was started by a lighted cigarette or a short-circuited electric wire. Michael was unable to speak because of his injuries. The fire department was called and the fire extinguished without aid of the fire department.

Execution Set.

Receipt of sentence to electrocution of Roy Pryor, convicted in Walton county, is announced by the Georgia prison commission. Pryor is to be electrocuted October 26.

Not All Lucky as 'Lindy'; Get Accident Protection

Colonel Charles Lindbergh crossed the Atlantic by air. He has toured the United States, visiting several scores of cities, likewise by air. And all without an accident.

Unfortunately we are not all so fortunate as "Lucky Lindy." Or perhaps the air is safer than city streets, or the motor highways of the open country in this day and time.

In any event the number of killed and injured daily from traffic crashes, whether the accident victims are motorists or pedestrians, is nothing less than appalling.

And it doesn't matter whether you are the responsible motorist or the guileless pedestrian, the careless pedestrian or the innocent bystander, if you are killed you are just as dead and your loved ones are just as surely deprived of your support.

And if the kindly gods of fate decree that you shall not die, but merely suffer painful injuries, you and your loved ones suffer for lack of your earning capacity while you are incapacitated just the same.

All of which is so true that it at once impels the thoughtful man or woman to investigate with interest an offer like that of The Constitution, which brings you a year's insurance against various forms of accidents, with indemnities ranging downward from $7,500 for the insignificant sum of $1.25.

This famous policy, issued by the North American Insurance company of Chicago, has already resulted in indemnity payments of over $53,000 in claims to Constitution policyholders.

In this paper appear regular advertisements giving full details of this

Hotel McAlpin Broadway at 34th St. New York City

It often occurs to me that many people who read McAlpin advertising don't quite appreciate the meaning of my personal invitation to make the McAlpin their New York home.

To enjoy all the modern luxury of a fine hotel - to be served by maid, valet and butler, to eat the finest food - to be entertained by the best music on Broadway - these are a few outstanding features of the McAlpin.

But the friendliness, the courtesy, and willing spirit of McAlpin service are attractions that one can appreciate only by enjoying them. Won't you let me prove it to you?

Yes, with every invitation goes my pledge to perform every word of my promise.

Sincerely,

John A. McAlpin

Managing Director

wonderful offer. Watch for them. This $7,500 travel, $2,000 auto and $1,000 pedestrian accident policy is issued only to subscribers of The Daily and Sunday Constitution and immediate dependent members - of a subscribers' family between the ages of 17 and 70 at $1.25 per year. One who is now taking The Daily and Sunday Constitution or will subscribe for same through an out-of-town carrier or dealer, paying for his paper weekly, monthly or otherwise, is a subscriber and is eligible.

Those taking The Daily and Sunday Constitution by mail, either through a postoffice or rural route delivery for one year, are eligible by paying $1.25 per year per policy above the subscription price.

Ind sending applications for insurance the applicant must state name, in full, give age and occupation, if beneficiary is desired, full Christian name must be given and relation of same to the insured.

Better Mornings

via Breakfasts That "Stand By" You

Quaker Oats Urged Widely by Authorities

FOREMOST educators, editors as well as leading business institutions like General Electric company, now are widely urging breakfasts that "stand by" as an important aid to success.

That's because it is now known that over 70% of the day's important work, in offices, stores, etc., falls into the four morning hours—the hours from 8:30 to 12:30.

In most American schools, including Princeton, Yale, most State Universities and some 2,000 grade schools throughout the country, 80% of the important classes are held before luncheon.

Thus, largely on expert advice, millions now start days with Quaker Oats—food that "stands by" one through the morning.

Excellent balanced in protein, carbohydrates, minerals and the important Vitamin B, this delicious food is ideal for banishing listless mornings.

Today get Quick Quaker that cooks in 2½ to 5 minutes or regular Quaker Oats at grocers.

FRANKLIN HONORS the Courage and Vision of COLONEL LINDBERGH

We are heartily in sympathy with the ideals and high purpose which have prompted his tour

Franklin recognizes Colonel Lindbergh's achievement as a valuable service to the science of engineering. Colonel Lindbergh personifies the spirit of progress—his world-famous flight furnishes conclusive proof of certain advanced engineering principles.

In Colonel Lindbergh's plane the air-cooled motor experienced its most grueling test—establishing a superiority that stands as a precedent of performance for the entire automotive industry. Likewise, many other features which Franklin has advanced have been as convincingly proven as the air-cooled motor and are universally accepted today. The four and six cylinder types of power plant, valve-in-head cylinder and closed bodies, first introduced by Franklin, are now standards of the world.

Now as never before attention is focused upon air-cooling. Air-cooling assures all-weather motoring without danger of over-heating or freezing—eliminates useless weight without sacrificing sturdiness of construction—effects unusual gasoline economy by greater engine efficiency.

We heartily endorse Colonel Lindbergh's mission as deserving of unstinted praise and support. We need men of his ability and foresight to promote the science of engineering and lead us to a new era of dependable transportation.

BUFORD YOUTH KILLED BY TRAIN

Buford, Ga., October 10.—(Special.)—Worley Coggins, about 20 years of age, was instantly killed about 2 o'clock Monday morning as he supposedly lay asleep on the Southern railway tracks at West's crossing about two miles south of Buford when passenger train No. 36 ran over him, severing his left leg and badly mangling his head.

Coroner Peter Smith, of Lawrenceville, was notified and immediately impounded a jury which rendered a verdict that the deceased came to his death as a result of unavoidable accident, the engineer in charge of the train stated that he saw the young man on the track and did all in his power to stop the train before striking him, but the momentum rolled the heavy train over Coggins before stopping.

Coggins is the son of Cicero Coggins and lived only a short distance from the scene of the accident.

Funeral services have not been announced but it is supposed that the young man will be buried Tuesday at Sugar Hill cemetery.

PARENTS CHARGE SIDESHOW FREAK KIDNAPED GIRL

Federal officials are investigating charges by Mr. and Mrs. George Baker, who conducted a side-show at the Southeastern fair, that their daughter, Elizabeth Mae, was kidnapped by "Aloa, the Alligator Boy," a performer at one of the side-shows.

According to the story told by the Bakers, their daughter worked for them the first three days of the fair, completing the week as ticket seller for Aloa. When the latter left the grounds Saturday night he is said to have told acquaintances that he was going to Danville, Va., and had a "nice little nurse to go with him."

The parents appeared before the department of justice to solicit federal aid in searching for the couple.

WITH HIRING BOYS TO ROB FOR HIM

Cleveland, Ohio, October 19.—(United News.)—A 20-year-old boy, who is alleged to have employed boys from 10 to 14 years of age to steal for him at the rate of $1 per theft, was sought by police here. Activities of the youth were discovered when a 10-year-old boy told police he had performed several thefts, being paid $1 for each one.

10 LEAD GUILTY IN ALCOHOL CASE

Cleveland, Ohio, October 10.—(AP)—Ten defendants in the superior industrial alcohol conspiracy case, the first of 112 persons from all sections of the United States named in a blanket indictment March 15, 1926, to come into court, entered pleas of guilty in federal court today. The men immediately were sentenced by Federal Judge Paul Jones.

Those who entered guilty pleas and their sentences were: Frank Fogel, Benjamin Gersonstein, David Gersonstein and Edward Silberstein, president of the company, alleged to have been the brains of the conspiracy, 15 years in Atlanta and $5,000 fine; David R. Roth, secretary-treasurer, of the company, one year and a day and $1,500 fine; Percy Corbin, in charge of records of the company, $500 fine; Camille Paternan, truck driver, $100 and costs; Benjamin Miller, truck driver, $500 and costs. All were from Philadelphia.

Sentence of Walter Engesser, superintendent of the Cleveland plant and chief chemist, who also pleaded guilty, was deferred.

All of those who received penitentiary sentences and Engesser were permitted to remain at liberty under present bond's until November 1 when they are to surrender to federal court officers here.

DIVORCE BLASTS QUARTER-CENTURY OF FRIENDSHIP

(By Leased Wire to The Constitution.)
Chicago, October 10.—For more than 25 years, Harry C. Levinson, an attorney, and Henry G. Hart were close friends and next-door-neighbors. The Levinsons were married December 17, 1902, and erected a home in Glenview. The Harts were married about the same time and built a home across Sheridan road. The Harts have two children. The Levinsons had one which died in infancy.

Today Levinson sued his wife for divorce, naming Hart as co-respondent. The bill charges that Hart and Mrs. Levinson have been unduly intimate over a period of 13 years. Levinson never suspected this state of affairs until he intercepted a letter his wife had written from a hospital to Hart. Levinson, in his bill, paints a picture of an idyllic friendship that lasted a quarter of a century and was rudely blasted by the letter and his wife's confession. He and Hart rode into and from the city together, attended all social functions together, and were more like brothers than neighbors. In her confession, Mrs. Levinson is said to have admitted acts of indiscretion with Hart at Palm Beach, at various hotels in Chicago, California, Indiana, New Jersey and New York.

Mrs. Levinson, driven from home after her confession, is now living in a south side hotel.

7 Jurors Selected At Madison in Trial Of Lester Little

Madison, Ga., October 10.—(Special.)—Exhausting a list of 150 names, seven jurors were selected today in the case of Lester Little, placed on trial for the second time charged with the slaying of John Harris, a chain gang warden of Morgan county, in May, 1926.

Deputies were busy tonight serving summons on 250 more veniremen and it is expected that the jury will be completed and the evidence begun some time Tuesday.

Little was tried in September, 1926, convicted and sentenced to be executed but on an appeal was given a new trial.

The killing occurred after a dispute over the employment of a negro farm hand and after those present thought the difficulty settled. The case is being tried at a special term of Morgan county superior court, with Judge J. B. Park presiding.

Solicitor General J. B. Duke is being assisted in the prosecution by Colonel A. G. Foster, of Madison, while the defendant is represented by Attorneys Joe Pottle, of Milledgeville; Orrin Roberts, of Monroe, and E. B. Lambert, of Madison.

The trial is expected to take about two days.

LEOPOLD BACHE, GOTHAM BANKER,
DIES IN SUBWAY

New York, October 10.—(AP)—Leopold S. Bache, member of the banking firm of J. S. Bache & Co., died tonight on the platform of the Fourteenth street station of the East Side (Feterbush) branch. Death was believed to have been due to a heart attack.

Bache, who was 61 years old, was born in this city and entered the brokerage business in 1901, later becoming a partner in the Bache company.

COMMANDS "FOURTH" SCOUTS TO HELP HANDLE CROWDS

Every Boy Scout troop in Atlanta will be busy in handling the crowds along the last four blocks to be followed by Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh and his party from Candler field to Grant field today.

The honor troop, No. 11, will be on duty at Pershing Point, where Lindbergh will place a wreath on a memorial tablet located there. West Peachtree street from Linden street to North avenue and North avenue from West Peachtree to the Techwood drive is the territory assigned to them so that they can hear the public address of the same flyer. Instructions have been issued from Scout headquarters that all Scouts appear at school today in full uniform. Those attending in uniform will be dismissed from school at noon, while other students will be forced to attend classes half an hour longer. Willis A. Sutton, superintendent of schools, announced.

Scouts will bring ropes about 15 feet long to be tied together to clear the streets of crowds. After the official party arrived at Grant field, Scouts will assemble at No. 8, Techwood drive, and be marched to the places in the stadium reserved for them.

Sections assigned to the Scouts for patrolling are:

SCOUTS TO HELP HANDLE CROWDS

Every Boy Scout troop in Atlanta will be busy in handling the crowds along the last four blocks to be followed by Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh and his party from Candler field to Grant field today.

The honor troop, No. 11, will be on duty at Pershing Point, where Lindbergh will place a wreath on a memorial tablet located there. West Peachtree street from Linden street to North avenue and North avenue from West Peachtree to the Techwood drive is the territory assigned to them so that they can hear the public address of the same flyer. Instructions have been issued from Scout headquarters that all Scouts appear at school today in full uniform. Those attending in uniform will be dismissed from school at noon, while other students will be forced to attend classes half an hour longer. Willis A. Sutton, superintendent of schools, announced.

Scouts will bring ropes about 15 feet long to be tied together to clear the streets of crowds. After the official party arrived at Grant field, Scouts will assemble at No. 8, Techwood drive, and be marched to the places in the stadium reserved for them.

Sections assigned to the Scouts for patrolling are:

West Peachtree from Linden to North avenue: East side, Troops 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 57, West side, Troops 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66.

North avenue from West Peachtree to Spring: North side, Troops 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 34, South side, Troops 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 47.

BROKE OUT

On Head, Became Itchy Pimples, Cuticura Heals.

"A few rough places broke out on the back of my brother's head. After two or three weeks they became a cluster of pimples that itched and burned. He would scratch causing them to scale over and then peel off. The breaking out caused disfigurement, and he lost his rest at night. The trouble lasted several months."

"Cuticura Soap and Ointment were recommended so I sent for a free sample. After using he got relief so we purchased more and in three and a half months he was healed." (Signed) Miss Beulah V. Bannister, 6100 Clay St., N. E., Washington, D. C., June 5, 1926.

BARHAM REPLIES TO I. C. C. LETTER

Charles Barham, chairman of the Southern Freight association, Monday made public a letter to Joseph B. Eastman, member of the interstate commerce commission, in answer to a recent communication from the commissioner, in which it was pointed out that action of the carriers in cancellation of less than carload commodity rates and exceptions to the classification were not in keeping with the rulings of the commission.

Mr. Barham's letter, under date of October 6, was withheld from the public until permission was obtained from Mr. Eastman for its publication.

The letter to Mr. Eastman follows in part:
"In reply to your letter of September 17, in which you comment upon the proposed cancellation of less than carload commodity rates and classification exceptions, as parts of the 1934 readjustment, has been delayed that opportunity might be had of presenting the correspondence to our executives for consideration. This has been done and the procedure outlined below is that which our principals feel may fairly and properly be followed."

Public Hearings Planned
"Cancellation of less than carload commodity rates: To continue our plans for a series of public hearings at which every interested shipper responding to the invitation will be given full opportunity to state views before a conclusion is reached or any tariff published covering a charge in his commodity. This plan to be followed even though it requires the postponement of any definite action, with respect to some of the commodities, beyond the effective date now tentatively set for publication of the class rates proper. In this connection we wish to report that a number of conferences have been held and that others are scheduled to follow."

"To further our conferences we now will distribute to interested shippers and receivers statements fairly representative of the rates and exceptions proposed; that is, the rates which will apply, if and when the less than carload commodity rates are cancelled. We understand that the public may not be induced to present any reasons they have for objecting to the cancellation of the rates on specific commodities with fair promptness rather than to take the broad ground that all less than carload commodity rates are proper and should be retained indefinitely."

Cancellation of Exceptions.
"Cancellation of exceptions to the classification: We cannot escape the conclusion that this question was squarely before the commission in docket 13,494, with testimony, both from the carriers and shippers, resulting in a specific finding, that there is absence of necessity for further hearings."

As we see it the proceedings in docket 13,494 were entered into for the precise purpose of determining a course of action which might be substituted for the usual one of publication and suspension. The evidence covering classification exceptions was complete and directly focused thereon. The proposal to cancel was plainly made and the issue joined. We feel warranted, therefore, in our belief that the finding controls; that it clearly indicates the action the commission would have taken if the case had been the ordinary one of suspension. Not is this conclusion changed because the wording of the finding is 'permissive' rather than 'mandatory.' In other words, despite its negative form, the result of finding No. 10 is believed to be unchanged."

The carriers feel justified, therefore, in proceeding with the cancellation of the present exceptions to the classification, without delay, as a necessity, and to be expected part of the readjustment."

Nasal catarrh is not only disagreeable and offensive, but it will lead to serious trouble.
That inflamed condition of the mucous membranes of the air passages of the head, nose and throat may spread to the point where it is incurable and a danger to life.

Dr. Blosser's Cigarettes are composed of medicinal herbs, flowers and berries. The warm smoke vapor is inhaled into the affected air passages and will go where sprays, douches and salves cannot reach. They contain no tobacco or opiates, and being harmless, are used by children, as well as adults.

If you suffer from any catarrhal trouble, plain nasal catarrh, catarrh of the throat, asthma, hay fever, bronchial irritations, or are subject to frequent colds, get from any druggist a pocket-size package of Dr. Blosser's Cigarettes, and prove for yourself their pleasant, beneficial effects.

Fair Sponsored by Women To Be Held Soon at Quitman

Quitman, Ga., October 10.—(Special.)—Plans for the first woman's fair in Georgia are complete and the dates set are October 25 through October 29. It is being put on by the Quitman Woman's club, the Daughters of the Confederacy, the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Business and Professional Woman's club and the Woman's auxiliary of the American Legion.

These five organizations are sponsoring the fair, and the major portions of the proceeds will go to the library building fund. The fair will include exhibits of women's work and merchants and manufacturers' displays.

The Brooks county tobacco warehouse, where the fair will be held, will be beautifully decorated and present indications are that the exhibits and crowds will tax it to capacity.

The feature of the opening night will be the Prosperity pageant staged by Mrs. Russell Snow in which King Tobacco and Queen Cotton and their attendant train will visit the fair. King Tobacco will wear robes of gold and brown and his crown of gold will be pointed with cigars and his scepter will be a huge cigar. His courtiers will be young men in white suits with brands representing well known brands of cigarettes.

Queen Cotton's maids of honor are young women elected in beauty contests in the different communities of the county. Their costumes will be bright green simulating cotton leaves and will wear pink cotton bloom hats and will wear pink cotton bloom hats.

In addition to this opening pageant most attractive programs have been planned for each day of the fair. Wednesday afternoon there will be a baby parade and show, sponsored by the U. D. G. chapter. Thursday night the U. D. G. chapter will put on a carnival and Friday night the Business and Professional Woman's club has planned a poverty parade, a burlesque. Saturday night the fair will close with a fiddlers' contest and a country dance.

Governor and Mrs. Hardman are expected for the opening night and will be given an informal reception after the prosperity pageant.

The fair, as stated, will be the first distinctive woman's fair put on in Georgia and is being planned, organized and managed by committees from the five organizations sponsoring the fair and will have the merit of being a big community event evolved by the genius and talent of local people and devoting the funds made to a big community enterprise, the library.

The merchants are cooperating generously, realizing that the fair will bring many people to town during the week.

KENTUCKY WITH PARK

Louisville, October 10.—(P)—T. Coleman DuPont, of Wilmington, Del., a Kentucky by birth, is desirous of buying Cumberland Falls and adjacent property to present it to the state of Kentucky as a state park.

Tom Wallace, chief of the editorial staff of The Times, himself an active worker for a state park at the falls, said today he was advised that DuPont began negotiating some months ago on his own initiative to purchase the property as a gift of lasting value to his native state.

The Cumberland Hydro-Electric company some time ago obtained a preliminary permit to build a power dam at the falls. Objection of conservation leagues over the country have been raised against the federal power commission granting the company a final permit.

"It is the hope of advocates of the preservation of Cumberland Falls that Samuel Insull, who is the real power behind the application for a permit, will be willing, in view of Senator DuPont's wish to make a gift of Kentucky, to cooperate with him instead of opposing his plan," Mr. Wallace said in a statement.

TWO JURY PANELS CALLED FOR DUTY IN LOCAL COURTS

Two panels of jurors were summoned Monday for service during the ensuing week in the criminal court of Atlanta and the municipal court. This is the first time in the history of the criminal court of Atlanta that two divisions have been operated, the sessions being held in the large number of cases now pending.

Under a recent enactment of the Georgia general assembly giving authority to the municipal court of Atlanta to handle cases from the criminal court of Atlanta, a panel of the jurors was drawn for Judge Jesse M. Wood, in the criminal court of Atlanta, and the second for Judge A. L. Etheridge in the municipal court of Atlanta.

Ground Is Broken
At Oglethorpe for New School Building

Montezuma, Ga., October 10.—(Special.)—The ground for the new school building at Oglethorpe which will replace the one destroyed by fire last year has been broken. The building will be of brick and will have 10 large classrooms and an auditorium that will seat 500.

It is estimated that it will be ready for occupancy five months after the actual work starts. J. P. Bennett, of Butler, is the contractor.

There are 160 pupils enrolled in the school. These pupils are attending classes in the courthouse and the different clubs and halls about the town. At the opening of the new school building it is estimated that 250 pupils will be in attendance.

18,970 ATTENDANCE
AAT SUNDAY SCHOOLS

An attendance of 18,970 was reported for Sunday by 33 Sunday schools belonging to the Georgia Sunday School association. The Agnes class of the Baptist tabernacle took first honors with 344 present, while the Susannah Wesley class, of Druid Hills Methodist, came second with an attendance of 175.

Austria Hit by Quake.
Schwandorf, Burgenland, Austria, October 10.—(P)—Five earth shocks, coming on the heels of shocks Saturday night in Vienna and other parts of the Balkans, shook this town early this morning, causing the collapse of many cottages and the damaging of others. The population panicked, did not dare reenter their homes today.

HILLIER WILL FILED IN COURT

Decatur, Ga., October 10.—(Special.)—Disposition of an estate estimated to be worth $200,000 is provided for in the will of the late Judge George Hillier, prominent Atlanta citizen, who died last week, which was filed here today in the office of Judge V. S. Margo, ordinary of De Kalb county.

His immediate family and other relatives are the chief beneficiaries of the estate, which consists of securities and property in Atlanta, among which is the corner of Alabama and Broad streets, which is occupied by Jacobs' pharmacy and other firms.

A trust is established during the life of Mrs. Hillier, the widow, who for the first year will receive the entire net income from the estate, which thereafter will be divided into five equal parts, one-fifth being shared equally by the widow and four children. Upon Mrs. Hillier's death, the estate will go to the four children, who will share equally.

George Hillier, Jr., Mrs. Minnie Hillier-Cromer, Mrs. Marion Hillier-Wolff and Mrs. Ellen Hillier-Newell. Bequests of $500 each are made to Misses Sarah and Elizabeth Coker.

Yesterday's FLOORS in your home today?

MODERN home-owners demand modern floors. Floors that are not only good-looking, in keeping with the decoration, but that are easy to care for and inexpensive to maintain.

With Armstrong's Linoleum Floors you can obtain the effects you want... Colonial, English, Spanish... and still have modern floors. Spring to walk on. Easy to clean. Long-wearing. And pleasingly inexpensive.

Under every yard of Armstrong's Linoleum laid by us, we first cement down a layer of builders' deadening felt. Then the linoleum. The few cents extra this felt costs is worth dollars in the extra wear you'll get from our linoleum floors.

See our special fall showing of Armstrong's Linoleum this week. Special, ten days only, no charge for measuring and estimating.

Longer Skirts Are Tabooed
Among Washington Stylists

BY MARTHA STRAYER.
Washington, October 10.—(United News.)—Paris and Capital Park policemen may be talking longer skirts but Washington dictators of style are not even mentioning them in a whisper.

With its brilliant diplomatic and government functions during the fall and winter, Washington competes with Paris and Fifth Avenue in the matter of setting fashions. A survey of stores reveals the following awaiting the capital elite in dresses, coats, hats, shoes and what have you:

Skirt lengths are unchanged. Transparent velvet is the leading fall fabric for dress, jersey and velvet for sports and good old reliable crepe satin for hard wear.

Shawl Collars

Coats for fall and winter have shawl collars—90 per cent of them, unless they're sports coats.

Hats are velvet, felt and satin and pretty soon they'll be metallic. Shapes are tiny and head sizes are a little larger than they have been.

Shoes are darker—black laces, with brown a close second. Patent leather and suede are outstanding shoe materials; stockings shades are unchanged, except that there are more dark tans to go with the new Boston shoes.

Black comes first and tan and wood browns second in dresses and coats. This is the straight style done from Washington stores in a nutshell.

two of these NEW Rugs...

Armstrong's Quaker-Felt Rug No. 4560 Sizes from 6 x 9 to 9 x 12 feet

And each rug will have the new enduring Accolac finish

What a pleasant surprise to find that the things you admire and want cost less than you expected to pay!

These new Armstrong's Quaker-Felt Rugs, for instance, that good stores are showing. Your "pin-money" bank probably holds enough to buy one or two of them—and room-size at that.

The designs are new, different, and printed in heavy, clear-toned oil colors over a carefully treated felt base. Each Quaker-Felt Rug is then given the added protection of enduring "Accolac"—a special lacquer like that used on the finest cars. "Accolac" keeps its rich luster under constant day-by-day wear and repeated soap-and-water washings.

Finally, each of these rugs proudly bears on its face a certificate guarantee of satisfaction—or the promise of a brand-new rug. Easily rolled up, these rugs are a boon in any home. Apartment house dwellers find many places for them.

Armstrong's Quaker-Felt is also offered you by-the-yard. You can have it in 6-foot and 9-foot widths in a score of pleasing patterns.

AMERICAN BANKERS PLAN POLISH LOAN

Washington, October 10.—(P)—Contrary to reports from Warsaw, treasury officials have been informed that negotiations for a loan to the Polish government by private American bankers still are in progress and have not collapsed.

American financiers are understood to be considering floating $45,000,000 of the proposed $70,000,000 loan, with British and Dutch financial interests absorbing the balance.

If the negotiations are brought to a satisfactory conclusion, Charles Dewey, assistant secretary of the treasury in charge of fiscal offices, probably will be selected as American adviser to the Polish government and director of the Bank of Poland to supervise expenditure of the loan. It is understood that his name already has been sent to the Polish government.

Saved by Dog.

Chicago, October 10.—(P)—The life of a woman made despondent by ill health and seeking release by suicide was saved yesterday by a dog. The animal, an English bull, whined and howled until neighbors came running to see what was the matter. They found Mrs. Arnold Fomer, 32, lying on the floor in a gas-filled room. A pulmonologist revived her.

FITZGERALD MAN FOUND DEAD IN HOME

Fitzgerald, Ga., October 10.—(P)—J. A. Schroll, 65, was found dead in his home here this morning. The aged man lived by himself, coming here with the early colonists from Missouri in 1806.

Surviving him are a daughter, Mrs. Frank Nelson, of Richmond, and a son, Frank Schroll, of Farber, Mo. Death from natural causes was the verdict of a coroner's jury.

CAROLINIANS TO HAVE HALLOWEEN PARTY

An elaborate dinner, addresses by W. E. Dendy, president, and General J. Colton Lynes, and an entertainment program will feature a Halloween party to be given Friday night, October 28, at 8 o'clock at the Ansley hotel roof garden by the South Carolina association.

The organization was recently formed with its membership consisting of former South Carolina citizens who are now residing in Atlanta. The meeting will be the first of the season since the club was organized several weeks ago.

Mr. Dendy will outline to the membership the purposes of the organization and General Lynes is scheduled for a brief address on "South Carolina History, Music and Art."

The party will be an informal affair and no costumes will be worn. Officers of the organization are: W. E. Dendy, president; Sam N. Evans, Charles B. Harmon, Dr. B. H. Mobley, Dr. L. Murray Hair, Walter Visanaka, and George M. Kohn, vice presidents; Lewis P. Jones, secretary, and Henry W. Arnold, treasurer.

The price of admission will be $2 for each member, and all members will be permitted to bring any member of his or her family at the additional price of $2, which will go toward the payment of the dinner alone. The entertainment program expense will be borne by the association. Names of all persons desiring to attend are desired to be in the hands of Secretary Lewis P. Jones, 315 Fulton courthouse, not later than Monday, October 25.

The entertainment committee, headed by Mrs. George Brown, will have charge of the Halloween party.

MANY PLEAD GUILTY TO DRY VIOLATIONS

"Guilty pleas to dry violations were the order of the day Monday in Judge Samuel H. Sibbey's district court. More than a dozen offenders pleaded guilty and received sentences ranging from $5 to three months in jail."

A. C. Parks, of Dawson county, owned to a charge of manufacturing liquor and drew a three months' jail sentence. Ferd Mincey, of Lumpkin county, was given a $20 fine on a like count. He told the court he could not raise the money, and received the option of 30 days in the Hall county jail. He had been fined in the state court.

W. Price Anderson, of Lumpkin county, entered a guilty plea to transporting whisky charges and was fined $25. His case had also been before the state courts.

Jack Hines, aged negro, told the judge he had done 12 months on the Coweta county chain-gang for the possession of a half-gallon of whisky. He was fined $5.

V. H. Langford, of Troop county, charged with the manufacture and possession of whisky-making apparatus, was found guilty on the latter count and fined $100, which he paid.

T. W. Shoemaker, of Carroll county, pleaded guilty to the manufacture of whisky and was given three months in the Coweta county jail.

Sam Hix, of Dawson county, got 60 days in the Hall county jail on his plea of guilty to manufacturing charges, while Lee Parker, of Cherokee, drew a ten-day sentence for his alleged aid in moonshining operations.

Two alleged offenders were arraigned by juries in the federal district court Monday. They were J. J. Wallace, of Douglas county, and Sam Davis, of Lumpkin county.

Salvation Army To Send Flood Sufferers Hens

To avert impending destitution as an aftermath of the Mississippi river flood for many poor farmers in the area which suffered most severely, the Salvation Army is preparing to make a large shipment of chickens for distribution to a number of the most deserving families. It was announced by Staff Captain W. H. Range, commander of the industrial and social service department of the army here.

Many families which were clothed with materials contributed by Atlanta people through the Salvation Army during the critical period of the emergency have been found, on follow-up investigation by army workers, to be on the verge of acute distress which threatens them during the coming winter as a result of inability to raise sufficient food.

One practical way to make many of these families self-sustaining during the winter will be to stock their small farms with laying hens, which will provide food and a surplus for sale for other supplies. The families concerned will be able to feed and care for chickens during the winter but that is about the only kind of practical rehabilitation that can be given them, army workers have found.

A general appeal is being made to friends of the army for contributions of chickens, which will be called for by army trucks on the day of the shipment if contributors will telephone Ivy 2224, industrial department headquarters, early this week.

Only laying hens will be of service for this new type of relief work, Captain Range said.

Alumni Record Appears At State University Under New Editorship

Athens, Ga., October 10.—(AP)—The first issue of the Georgia Alumni Record under the editorship of Thomas S. Gray, who was elected editor and secretary of the Georgia Alumni society last June to succeed John D. Allen, resigned, has made its appearance.

In an opening editorial Mr. Gray says he plans to keep alumni informed of true conditions at the university. In another editorial he discussed the recent appropriation to the university by the Georgia legislature.

Dr. Frank K. Boland, Atlanta, president of the alumni society, has an article in the issue addressed to the alumni, in which he stresses the importance of the work of the society, and discusses the forthcoming University day.

Other articles include a discussion of the financial status of the university by Thomas J. Hamilton, Jr., Augusta; articles by Dr. Joseph Stewart, director of the summer school; Professor John Dewey, of the department of journalism; Charles E. Martin, managing editor of the Athens Banner-Herald, and others.

ATLANTA CIVIC LEADER WILL ADDRESS LEAGUE

Milton W. Bell, officer of the Federal Reserve bank and well-known civic leader, will be the principal speaker at the regular meeting of the Business Women's league at 3:30 o'clock next Sunday afternoon in the Sunday school auditorium. Second Baptist church, it was announced Monday.

A large attendance is expected to be on hand to welcome the return of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Paxton from their recent visit to Atlantic City and New York. Mrs. Paxton is president of the league. The meeting Sunday will be in charge of Group B, with Miss Laura Kate Morgan, chairman, and Mrs. W. C. Huff, co-chairman.

TRAVELERS INSURANCE MEETING ENDS TODAY

With two business sessions and a luncheon today, agents and representatives of the Travelers Insurance company, the Travelers Indemnity company and the Travelers Fire insurance company, of Hartford, will conclude a sales conference which opened Monday at the Athletic club. The Monday meeting was featured by a banquet in the evening and a noon luncheon.

The conference between the Atlanta representatives of the group of three companies embraces all the multiple lines written by the Travelers. Home office representatives from Hartford who addressed the meetings included D. J. Blochman, supervisor of field service and formerly assistant superintendent of agencies, life, accident and group departments; John H. Egloff and J. F. Murtaugh, also of the field service department; and W. E. Boyd, Jr., supervisor of agency field service for the Travelers Insurance company. Local agents also joined in discussion of the topics introduced.

The field service department was established by the Travelers last January. It was designed to serve better the company's representatives in the field so that they in turn may also serve better their policyholders in any and all lines written by the Travelers.

E. S. Huntley is manager of the Atlanta branch office of the Travelers Insurance company, accident and group insurance; Leon C. Russell, manager of the casualty lines, and C. G. Snow, manager in Georgia for the Travelers Fire Insurance company.

GORDON TO BE PAVED WITH VITRIFIED BRICK

Gordon street will be paved from Lee street to Holderess street with vitrified brick, the work to begin as soon as possible, according to final action Monday by the Fulton county commission in special session.

A delegation of West End citizens, headed by Hall Davis and residents along Gordon street, appeared before the board and voiced a bitter protest against paving the street with the bricks. They requested that the commission carry out the plan which called for a concrete paving and to rescind its action of last Wednesday by which the street was to be paved with brick.

The paving will include eight blocks and will be laid at an estimated cost of $100,000.

The commissioners voiced their opinions on the project, stated their original agreement and declined to rescind their original action.

ARMY DOCTORS TO AID IN AIR EXAMINATIONS

To facilitate examination of applicants for aircraft pilots' license, the war department has issued instructions to all corps area commanders for the cooperation with the department of commerce in the examinations, says an announcement from Fourth Corps area headquarters here.

"Army medical officers, qualified to perform the physical examination for flying, possessing the necessary equipment, and stationed where there are no authorized medical examiners of the department of commerce will be available to examine civilian aviators in such examinations which will not interfere with the performance of their military duties," the announcement says.

JUGOSLAV-BULGAR CRISIS IS PASSED

London, October 10.—(United News.)—Dispatches from the Balkans indicate that the Bulgarian-Jugoslav crisis arising from the assassination of General Michael Korachewitch by a Bulgarian Comitatist has passed.

The Exchange Telegraph's Athens correspondent says a band of 180 Comitatists is en route to Yugoslavia from Albania through Greek territory. Two Bulgarian peasants, the dispatch adds, living in Yugoslavia because of the Comitatist reign of terror, supplied that information to the authorities, who are searching for the band.

The Belgrade semi-official newspaper Vreme is said to oppose the proposed intervention by great powers in the settlement of the differences between the two countries, maintaining that such intervention would be as ineffective as in the past.

It is understood the Bulgarian chamber of deputies will hold a special session Friday.

fiery and within a few minutes 11 had dropped from wounds.

In desperation a squad of police rushed the house and lighted a fire beneath it, while an armored police patrol drew alongside and five tear bombs were thrown into the building. The negro, however, continued his fire from windows and doorways.

Reserves Reach Scene

Meanwhile additional police reserves had arrived on the scene and several machine guns were brought into play. Additional police formed a solid line for more than a block about the house, holding back 5,000 persons who had been attracted by the firing.

After a pitched battle of more than an hour, Plainclothes Officer Woody Sandifer climbed to the roof of an adjoining house and opened fire on Pinkhard, who staggered out of range. "I've got him, boys," Sandifer shouted.

Officers swarmed into the room and more than 50 shots were fired at the negro who dropped to the floor with his head, arms, shoulders and chest literally perforated with bullets.

Officers who entered the room were on the verge of collapse from the gas from tear bombs. They expressed amazement that Pinkhard was able to retain consciousness in the fog of gas.

As the negro's body was carried from the house hundreds of onlookers rushed forward and before police could intervene, trampled on the body.

at the ceremony, attended by a detachment from the battalion.

Sponsored by Guard.

The monument was erected under sponsorship of the Gate City Guard, from the ranks of which the Old Guard was organized in 1911, while civic clubs and other patriotic organizations aided in raising the fund.

It was raised to commemorate the first peace-time invasion of the north, formally conducted in 1870 by the Gate City Guard. In full dress, carefully drilled and bearing arms, the famous battalion paraded in many of the thoroughfares of the city, and were received on every hand by the acclaim of thousands.

When the monument was unveiled here virtually every important city of the east sent formal delegations of their militiamen to the ceremonies. Governor Simon Baldwin, of Connecticut, presided jointly with Governor Hoke Smith, of Georgia.

In 1921 the first anniversary observance of the unveiling was conducted here, and while Monday's was the second in sixteen years the Old Guard plans to form an organization to make the commemoration an annual affair.

Today the rosters of the Old Guard record the names of many of the most prominent and influential citizens of the city. The officers include Colonel Camp, commander; Will L. Hancock, adjutant; Dr. W. L. Champion, surgeon; J. C. Gavin, secretary; Henry C. Berman, quartermaster; W. E. Hancock, J. C. Gavin, captains; W. B. Cummings, Walter S. Coleman, G. H. Yancey, Jr., and Sam Meyer, and Frank M. Berry and K. S. McAllister, sergeants.

A large Monday night at East Lake Country club will be an additional feature of the day's celebrations.

was said at the navy department to be $40,000. Since the receivership, however, only two wells have been drilled, both for offset purposes.

Secretary Wilbur declared today that the policy of the department in the Teapot case would be to preserve as much oil as possible in the ground.

SINCLAIR OUSTED FROM TEAPOT DOME

BY RAYMOND CLAPPER.

Washington, October 10.—The United States supreme court has cancelled the Teapot Dome oil lease grounds of fraud, just one week before Albert B. Fall, former secretary of the interior, and Harry F. Sinclair, millionaire oil man, are to go on trial here for criminal conspiracy to defraud the government in this same transaction.

The supreme court decision, read today by Justice Pierce Butler, returns this valuable naval oil reserve in Wyoming to the custody of the government and denounces Fall as a "faithless public officer." The decision ends the civil phase of the oil cases.

Next Monday Fall and Sinclair must stand trial on criminal charges based on the same evidence that the supreme court has just reviewed.

There was surprise that the court should make its decision known on the eve of the criminal trial. In the Doherty civil case, the court did not hand down its decision, which was equally denunciatory of Fall and Doherty's dealings, until after Fall and Doherty were acquitted by a jury of criminal conspiracy on the same evidence.

Whether Sinclair and Fall now escape punishment depends on whether the jury takes the same view of the Teapot Dome transaction that the supreme court has just taken.

Under the rules of evidence, it is doubtful if the decision of the supreme court can be directly brought to the attention of the jury. Unless the jurors happen to read the newspaper report, or some hints of the decision creep into the trial indirectly, they will pass the guilt or innocence of Fall and Sinclair without the benefit of the judgment of the nine supreme legal judges of the land.

Disloyal Public Servant.

"Fall so favored Sinclair in making of the lease and the agreement that it was not possible for him loyally or faithfully to serve the interests of the United States or impartially consider the application of others for leases in the reserve and the lease and agreement were made fraudulently by means of collusion and conspiracy between them," Justice Butler said in his decision.

"Pending the making of the lease and agreement, Fall and Sinclair, contrary to the government's policy for

Washington, October 10.—The United States supreme court has cancelled the Teapot Dome oil lease grounds of fraud, just one week before Albert B. Fall, former secretary of the interior, and Harry F. Sinclair, millionaire oil man, are to go on trial here for criminal conspiracy to defraud the government in this same transaction.

The supreme court decision, read today by Justice Pierce Butler, returns this valuable naval oil reserve in Wyoming to the custody of the government and denounces Fall as a "faithless public officer." The decision ends the civil phase of the oil cases.

Next Monday Fall and Sinclair must stand trial on criminal charges based on the same evidence that the supreme court has just reviewed.

There was surprise that the court should make its decision known on the eve of the criminal trial. In the Doherty civil case, the court did not hand down its decision, which was equally denunciatory of Fall and Doherty's dealings, until after Fall and Doherty were acquitted by a jury of criminal conspiracy on the same evidence.

Whether Sinclair and Fall now escape punishment depends on whether the jury takes the same view of the Teapot Dome transaction that the supreme court has just taken.

Under the rules of evidence, it is doubtful if the decision of the supreme court can be directly brought to the attention of the jury. Unless the jurors happen to read the newspaper report, or some hints of the decision creep into the trial indirectly, they will pass the guilt or innocence of Fall and Sinclair without the benefit of the judgment of the nine supreme legal judges of the land.

Disloyal Public Servant.

"Fall so favored Sinclair in making of the lease and the agreement that it was not possible for him loyally or faithfully to serve the interests of the United States or impartially consider the application of others for leases in the reserve and the lease and agreement were made fraudulently by means of collusion and conspiracy between them," Justice Butler said in his decision.

"Pending the making of the lease and agreement, Fall and Sinclair, contrary to the government's policy for

Debut in Heyward's "Porgy"

New York, October 10.—(AP)—A goat made its debut as an actor tonight for the first time in Broadway's variegated history.

Wearing whiskers more real than those commonly seen on actors, "Billy," chewing his cud, drags his negro master across the stage in a soap-box wagon in the new play, "Porgy," a dramatization of the novel by DuBoise Heyward, poet and author, of Charleston, S. C., produced for the first time tonight by the Theatre Guild.

"Porgy," like the novel of that name, is a fantasy of negro life in Charleston. The dramatization was done by the author and his wife, Dorothy Harriet Kuhn, who won the 1923 Harvard workshop play prize and who wrote "Nancy Ann," played on Broadway.

Negro spirituals, never before sung on the stage and only recently transcribed, are another feature. Heyward took the spirituals for the play, taking them down as Charleston negroes sang them.

one of the government prosecutors, went to Europe recently to bring about the return of these two, H. M. Blackmar and James E. O'Neil, both formerly were oil company officials and were present when the resale transaction of the Continental Trading company was forced upon them. Until the government came to the stand it cannot produce direct evidence of what it believes to be the facts. Justice Butler interpreted the nation but the prosecutors in a criminal trial may have difficulty in getting as many of the details before the jury, lacking first-hand testimony.

conservation of oil reserves for the navy and in disregard of law, conspired to procure for the Mammoth company (Sinclair's Teapot Dome operating subsidiary) all the products of the reserve on the basis of exchange of royalty oil for construction work, fuel oil, etc."

Justice Butler some time ago also delivered the government's decision in the Fall-Doherty Elk Hills lease, which likewise was a victory for the government in annulling the Teapot Dome lease, the supreme court overthrew the trial judge, T. Blake Kenney, who justified the lease and Sinclair's reversal of the trial judge and held the Teapot Dome transaction was vitiated by fraud. Now the supreme court's final seal of approval on this reversal.

Pomerene Pleaded.

"That's my view of the case," commented Senator Allee Pomerene, one of the special government counsel prosecuting the oil cases. He was in the courtroom when the decision was read. Sinclair's attorneys went into conference and had nothing to say.

Secretary Wilbur, commenting on the decision, said that now the act has recovered the oil reserve, it will undertake the keep the oil in the ground as far as possible. Since the suits were begun in 1924, the reserve has been held by a receivership. The receivers will turn over to the government approximately $8,000,000 received from the sale of oil from the reserve during the receivership.

Will Receive Cash.

The navy also will receive $2,200,000 due from the sale of oil by the Sinclair company prior to the receivership. The government also gets possession of two oil storage tanks at Portsmouth, N. H., with a total capacity of 300,000 barrels, built in connection with the Teapot Dome transaction at a cost of $1,000,000. Twenty-seven oil tanks built on the reserve by Sinclair also come into possession of the government. The government furthermore gets the benefit of all of the drilling that has been done on the reserve. There are some 62 producing wells each costing approximately $40,000.

Butler concluded that the Teapot Dome leases were fraudulently made although he found no direct evidence of the corrupt arrangement. The circumstances disclosed, however, "prove the charge" in his estimation.

"The Mammoth company," Justice Butler said, "insists that the lease was made to protect the reserve from loss by drainage. The trial court did not pass upon the matter. The circuit court of appeals found there was remote but not immediate danger. The terms of the arrangement and testimony of witnesses show that the lease and agreement were not made to prevent drainage. While the negotiations were pending Fall and Sinclair indicated they thought such danger existed but the evidence warrants a finding that their expressions were made in bad faith to make it appear that there was a reason for the expenditure of the reserve and the proposed disposition of its products."

Continental Episode.

Butler then turned to the Continental Trading company episode, organized by Sinclair and some of his friends. Government attorneys claim to have traced to Fall $90,000 in Liberty bonds bought from profits of this concern. They alleged that Fall received a total of $230,000 in Liberty bonds from this paper concern of Sinclair.

"Creation of the Continental company, the purchase and resale of contracts enabling it to make more than $8,000,000 without capital, risk or effort, the assignment of the contract to the resale purchasers for a small fraction of its probable value, and the purpose to conceal the disposition of its assets make it plain that the company was created for some illicit purpose," Justice Butler said.

"And the clandestine and unexplained acquisition of these bonds by Fall confirms the belief, generated by other circumstances in the case, that he was a faithless public officer. There is nothing in the record that tends to mitigate the sinister significance attached to that enrichment."

Justice Butler went on to say that Fall resigned as secretary of interior March 4, 1923, and that shortly thereafter Sinclair gave him $25,000, making payment through Liberty bonds. Fall also was given $10,000 for expense money, having been asked by Sinclair to accompany him to Russia to assist in negotiating an oil deal with the soviet government. Sinclair sent the funds by personal attorney, who went to New Mexico to see Fall because Fall did not want to write about the matter.

"Not Straightforward."

"It is obvious that this was not a straightforward transaction," said Justice Butler, after relating in detail the steps taken to keep the transaction secret. "Coming so soon after the supplemental agreement made to perfect and carry out the scheme, it strengthens and confirms the inference that Fall had been willing to conspire to defraud the United States; and, taken in connection with other circumstances disclosed, it is persuasive evidence of such a conspiracy between him and Sinclair."

The government prosecutors intend to make the Continental Trading company episode an important part of their evidence in the criminal trial, but they have been handicapped by the inability to obtain the return of witnesses who went to Europe when the facts became known. Pomerene, ## REMUS IS SEEKING HIS MISSING FUNDS.

Lansing, Mich., October 10.—(United News.)—Believing that part of the profits of George Remus' bootlegging operations are concealed in a Lansing safety deposit box, George J. Connors, his attorney, left for Cincinnati tonight in an effort to obtain a court order to examine the box.

The money was believed by Connors to have been secreted by Mrs. Remus, who was shot to death by her husband. The box was said to be held jointly by the millionaire bootlegger's former wife and Franklin Dodge, of Lansing, former prohibition agent whose attentions to Mrs. Remus prompted the shooting.

Remus first gained fame when he published a poem in which the origin of American jazz was traced to Jasbo Brown, itinerant Mississippi river minstrel. Jasbo Brown played piano in the mansion where the Mississippi levers. Shouts for Remus took the form of "Jass! More, Jass!" This type of minstrel played the first of the "Blues" and racy rag-time music, since more or less jazz-musical into jazz. The shouts of "Jas" is considered the origin of the term jazz.

There are 53 Harlem negroes in the cast of "Porgy."

county grand jury and the holding of an inquest for Mrs. Remus, the wheels of justice begin their grind in earnest.

The grand jury was impaneled today and the Remus case is scheduled for its first consideration tomorrow. A date is expected to be set for the trial as soon as an indictment is returned. Remus will not be summoned before the inquest, which will get under way at 2 o'clock, Corner First and Second streets.

The witnesses at the inquest, Coroner Swing said, will be Ruth Remus, the adopted daughter, who was with her mother at the time of the shooting, Mrs. Remus' taxi driver and the men and policemen who took her to the hospital.

County Prosecutor Charles P. Taft, II, who will direct the prosecution of Remus, is the youngest son of chief Justice William Howard Taft of the United States supreme court.

MRS. GRAYSON REACHES HER GOAL IN MAINE.

Old Orchard, Maine, October 10.—(AP)—Mrs. Frances Wilson Grayson, attempting a safe and sane transatlantic flight with Copenhagen as her objective, arrived here at 5:16 clock this afternoon in an amphibian monoplane Dawn, from Roosevelt Field, N. Y. The time for the 225-mile flight was approximately three hours.

The big plane made a perfect landing on Grand Beach and taxied over to the hangar of Captain Harry Jones, Old Orchard aviator, the starting point of the ill-fated Old Glory, lost in the Atlantic while attempting a flight to Rome.

Mrs. Grayson, her pilot, Wilmer Stultz, and the four others who made the trip from New York said conditions had been excellent with a favoring wind and splendid visibility. The clear moonlight, they said, would have made a night landing here perfectly safe. The others were Brice Goldsborough, navigator and radio operator; Brice Lebeinsky, engineer; T. Harold Kinkaid, motor expert, and John Froge, New York newspaperman.

Immediately after the plane had been grounded for the night the party went to the Hotel Brunswick, where they had reservations. Mrs. Grayson said that the weather prospects make it unlikely that the start for Europe would be made for several days. In the meantime, a series of tests will be carried out here.

Postpones Flight.

Curlew Field, N. Y., October 10.—(AP)—Ruth Elder, Florida, aviator, today postponed her proposed flight to Europe until Wednesday at least.

"We still have hope," she said, "but the weather forbids making the attempt before Wednesday at least. After that we'll go just as soon as the weather lets us."

ATLANTA READY TO ACCLAIM AIR VIKING

MANY THOUSANDS EXTEND FLORIDA'S GREETING TO LINDY

Drenching Downpour Fails To Dampen Wild Enthusiasm of Great Crowds at Jacksonville.

Jacksonville, Fla., October 10.—(AP)—Florida today greeted Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh.

In spite of a drenching downpour, Uncle Sam's ambassador of the air was given the greatest ovation this state has ever been accorded a person in Jacksonville, and in the throngs were many out-of-town visitors, representatives at the welcoming festivities of southern Georgia and of all sections of the Florida peninsula.

Speeding out of the west at 1:44 p. m., the Spirit of St. Louis circled over downtown Jacksonville, four times, dipping in salute to the wildly cheering crowds, and then headed north to the municipal airport. There Colonel Lindbergh maneuvered to "drop" the field, cautiously awaiting the oncoming rain for fear of changing air currents. He made a perfect landing in a heavy rain which failed to dampen the enthusiasm of some 8,000 persons. He was rushed to the city proper and a little ahead of the rainstorm led a triumphant parade to the municipal stadium. As his automobile drew up to the speaker's stand there it began to drizzle and soon the crowd, estimated at nearly 10,000, was drenched. They took the wetting in good spirit, and the official welcoming ceremony got under way.

Beautiful floats from many Florida cities made the parade one of the prettiest in Jacksonville's history.

Scouts Precede Parade.

The parade had been preceded to the stadium by 2,300 boy scouts, who from throughout the state, said to have been the largest congregation of members of the organization in the southland. A dozen or so of bands and drum corps from various cities and institutions participated in the ceremonies.

It was official Florida's welcome to the lone eagle, for Jacksonville, with the exception of the short stay in Pensacola as a guest of the naval station there, was the only Florida municipality included in the continental tour, and Floridians combined to show the daring aviator that it had not forgotten the epochal trans-Atlantic flight.

Tonight Colonel Lindbergh was the honor guest at a banquet, and tomorrow he is expected to leave Jacksonville for New Orleans.

NAVAL ESCORT GOES INTO RIVER.

New Orleans, La., October 10.—(AP)—Commander Ralph A. Davison, attired in overalls and a blue farm shirt, told of an attempt to swim ashore with one hand and tow his plane with the other after his forced landing in the Mississippi river early today. Commander Davison reached the Alvin Callender airport by automobile two hours after the crash.

Commander Davison was unhurt, but his plane sank before he reached shore. The commander, flying as escort to Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh from Pensacola to New Orleans, was forced to land in the river when his engine stalled as he banked for a landing. Colonel Lindbergh delayed his departure to spend the day with friends.

Pensacola, Fla., October 10.—(AP)—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, flying alone in a Curtiss Hawk plane, hopped off from here at 5:13 a. m., Lieutenant Commander H. A. Davison, of the navy, following closely in another Curtiss Hawk plane, and five navy planes formed a departing escort for a short distance.

Colonel Lindbergh arrived here Sunday to spend the day with friends.

Daughters of Confederacy To Decorate Col. Lindbergh

Another prized decoration will rest on the chest of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh when he enters Grant field about 3:45 o'clock this afternoon.

The emblem will be composed of the Confederate and Union flags joined in the center with the American flag, and will be presented to Lindbergh by Major General David B. Freeman, commander of the Georgia Division of United Confederate Veterans, and Brigadier General W. D. Harris, of the north Georgia division of the U. C. V., on behalf of the Atlanta chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, of which Mrs. Stafford Seidell is president.

This ceremony will take place at Pershing Point when Lindbergh decorates the memorial of the War Mothers' Service Star Legion at 3 o'clock, and at the same time Mrs. Charles P. Byrd, chairman of the distinguished guests' committee of the Confederate Daughters, will read a poem to Lindbergh which was composed by Mrs. Charles Nevel Davis, poet laureate of the Atlanta chapter.

parture to aid in a search for Commander Davison, but took off in the Spirit of St. Louis immediately after learning of his companion's safety.

Commander Davison said he believed the crash was due to a broken gas line.

"I circled the field and started to bank for a landing," he said, "when my motor began missing. I was over the western edge of the river, but the engine quit. The air until I could reach the other side. The plane hit the water about 50 yards from the eastern shore and remained afloat about 15 minutes before sinking."

He told of trying to swim ashore with one hand and tow the plane. While in the water, he said, a wave passed and saw his plight but did not send a life boat to his assistance. The plane sank before he could reach shore.

Commander Davison was supplied with overalls and a blue shirt by a farmer living near the scene of the crash.

DROPS NOTE ON TALLAHASSEE.

Tallahassee, Fla., October 10.—(AP)—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, after apparently passing up Florida's capital city while en route to Jacksonville today, circled back and dropped a message addressed to the City of Tallahassee.

The message, signed personally by the aviator, conveyed greetings to the people of the city and expressed regret at not being able to visit here. It was dropped at about 12:15 o'clock in the capital yard and was picked up by a group of young women, state employees.

Just before dropping the message, Lindbergh flew over the governor's mansion and the Florida State College of Agriculture.

An airplane, flying high and believed to have been that of Lindbergh, passed over Tallahassee at about noon.

Davison, of the navy, following closely in another Curtiss Hawk plane, and five navy planes formed a departing escort for a short distance.

COM. DAVISON FLIGHT INSTRUCTOR.

Pensacola, Fla., October 10.—(AP)—Lieutenant Commander Ralph A. Davison, U. S. N., in charge of the navy's flight instruction here, flying in a single-seater Curtiss Hawk plane, departed simultaneously with Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh to accompany the trans-Atlantic flier to New Orleans. The five other Hawk planes, which formed an escort for a short distance out of this city, returned.

Lieutenant Commander Davison's home was given only as Missouri and his age as 32 on the naval records here. He was graduated from Annapolis Military academy in 1916 and came here in June to assume charge of the flight instruction school.

Colonel Lindbergh will march through a line of members of the Old Guard, in full dress, to the memorial, where the exercises will take place.

The generals will be in uniform also. Mrs. Evangeline Lindbergh, mother of Colonel Lindbergh, declined an invitation of the Atlanta chapter to visit this city during the visit of her son, declaring "it seems impossible to leave Detroit at this time, and regretting her inability to be present."

The letter from Mrs. Lindbergh follows: "My Dear Mrs. Seidell: I am late in acknowledging your cordial invitation to visit Atlanta as a guest of the Atlanta chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy. I had hoped to be able to do so this month, as well as in August. It seems to be impossible to leave Detroit at this time. Please accept my sincere regrets, for I should thoroughly enjoy visiting your state. Most cordially, (Signed) 'EVANGELINE L. L. LINDBERGH, 178 N. Ashland Ave., Detroit.'"

Guests at the dinner in honor of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh must be in their seats on the roof of the Ansley hotel at 6:45 o'clock tonight, it was announced Monday night.

A total of 411 have been invited to attend the dinner, and it is highly necessary that they be seated at least 15 minutes before the dinner begins. This will avoid confusion, those in charge declare, and permit starting on time.

LINDBERGH SPEECH TO BE AMPLIFIED

Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh was dubbed the ambassador of the air when he made the first successful non-stop flight from New York to Paris, and he will take the air again at 3:45 o'clock this afternoon at Grant field, where over a million people are expected to witness the flight.

Thirteen is no unlucky number for Lindbergh, who was called "Lucky Lindy" long before his hop across the Atlantic, so today he will speak to his listeners through 13 amplifiers and three microphones. Two of the amplifiers will be connected directly to the amplifiers and the other to the hook-up.

Immediately after the Yellow Jackets completed their practice Monday afternoon, a large corps of workmen assaulted the field, placing the amplifiers and arranging final details so that no word uttered by Lindbergh would be lost.

Gregory Bowden, manager of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph company, issued the word that in the state was commandeered at his request. These will be installed about the speakers' stand in order to obtain any confusing echoes, such as would take place if they were placed at other points in the grand stand. The speaker's platform will be located in the center of the football field.

Grant field will be open to the public promptly at 1 o'clock. No one will be permitted to enter the third street gate, since it has been reserved for the official party.

The platform will be enclosed by the strong wire fence which has been erected under the direction of Colonel Earl D. Arey, Peace, commandant of the Tech R. O. T. C. unit, and will be guarded by the Tech Scouts to prevent spectators from crowding onto the field.

AT 66 WHITEHALL STREET

Formerly the Location of the Carlton Clothes Shop

Individual or Institution—growth is through service. And service, as rendered by the Julian Goldman chain of stores should not be withheld from those who would benefit by it

With 55 stores already located in the East and the great Midwest—and famous the country over for its apparel and for its charge account plan—the spirit of service now takes the Julian Goldman Chain southward . . . and Atlanta comes first.

Saturday, October 15th the Julian Goldman Store Will Be Ready To Serve You . . .

Ready to serve you with the finest apparel obtainable from the fashionable centers of New York—the style marts of Paris—London—and our own fashion studios . . . .

Ready to serve you with apparel in greater variety to make choosing easier—Dresses, Gowns, Furs and Lingerie . . .

Ready to serve you Men with as fine clothing as you ever hoped to wear regardless of your income—and at prices that give full consideration to it!

Not only a shop for women—and not merely a men's shop. The Julian Goldman Store will be far greater . . . it will be pre-eminently a family store, dedicated to serving every member of the family and it is in this capacity we hope to demonstrate our usefulness to Atlanta.

The Julian Goldman Plan of Convenient Payments Is at your Service

There is no charge whatsoever for this accommodation. You enjoy the same low price as though you paid the full amount at once. And it's the simplest thing—no bother or inconvenience—the whole thing is arranged in a few minutes.

To wait for the opening of the Julian Goldman Store is to wait for the Newest in Fashion and the Utmost in Value.

Atlantans To Get Close-Up Of 'Spirit of St. Louis' Today

Thousands of Atlantans will be interested in getting a close-up of the Spirit of St. Louis, the mechanical half of "we," which made the maiden air voyage across the Atlantic bearing Lindbergh to fame and fortune.

That opportunity will be offered today at Candler Field.

Lindbergh will land at 2 o'clock this afternoon and taxi directly into the hangar of Doug Davis, local pilot, and after the leaves the field the hangers will be lowered and those wishing to inspect the machine will be given the opportunity. The machine will remain on exhibition until dark tonight.

The Spirit of St. Louis is a Ryan M-2 plane, and is considered one of the finest specimens of plane construction ever evolved.

There are many unique and unusual features of construction which will attract the observers. The fuselage is of welded steel tubing, welded throughout. No wires are used for bracing purposes, since the Warren truss system is employed. The engine mounting is built separately and is pinned to the fuselage by four nickel steel bolts.

The cockpit is entirely enclosed and due to the fact that all fuel tanks are mounted in front of it for balance and safety, a periscope is provided for vision ahead. Mirrors reflect the view ahead on an instrument board directly in front of the pilot. Additional visibility to the right and left and even to the rear is provided by windows.

Landing gear is of split axle type, hinged at the lower longon. Shock absorbers are of elastic cord and mounted vertically between the main and the forward wing strut. The tail skid is steerable and is also constructed of heat-treated chrome molybdenum steel tubing.

The Spirit of St. Louis is driven by a Wright "Whirlwind," nine-cylinder motor of fixed radial air-cooled type.

The engines average 250 flying hours, or about 25,000 miles between overhauls. Their life is about 200,000 miles, calculated in automobile time. Lindbergh made about 100 flights to the gallon of gasoline on his New York to Paris flight.

Specifications of the plane follow.

Span, 46 feet 10 inches; chord, 7 feet; length 38 feet; wing area, 319 square feet; aerofoil, Clark Y.

Weights—Engine, Wright J-5-C, giving 225 H. P. at 1,800 r. p. m.; propeller, standard steel propeller, dual, set at 16 1/2 degrees pitch; empty complete with instruments, 2,150 pounds; useful load, pilot, 170 pounds; 40 gallons of gasoline, 450 gallons (western at 6.12 pounds per gallon), 2,750; oil, 25 gallons at 7 pounds per gallon, 175; total, 3,444 pounds.

Gross weight fully loaded at start of flight, 5,294 pounds.

Other reports state that the total load of the plane at the start of flight was 5,150 pounds, the greatest load ever lifted up to that time, with a single Wright Whirlwind engine.

Gross weight, light loaded at end of flight without gasoline and food, but with ten gallons of oil left, 2,145 pounds.

Wing loading (full load at start of flight, 164 pounds per square foot); (light load at end of flight), 7.57 pounds per square foot.

Power loading (full load at start of flight), 23.7 pounds h.p. (light load at end of flight), 10.7 pounds per h.p.

Calculated performance (r.p.m. data based on test and theory) Maximum speed (full load), 120 m.p.h.; (light load), 124.5 m.p.h.

Minimum speed, full load, 71 miles per hour; light load, 49 miles per hour.

Economic speed: full load, 97 miles per hour; light load, 67 miles per hour.

Full load, with full, rich mixture, 6.95 miles per gallon.

Light load with lean mixture, 13.9 miles per gallon.

Range—At ideal speeds of 97 start and 67 miles per hour at end, 4,110 miles. At practical speeds of 95 start and 75 miles per hour at end, 4,040 miles.

Flight test performance—Maximum speed, with 25 gallons gas and five gallons oil, 129 miles per hour over three-mile course; with full load of 425 gallons of gas and 25 gallons oil, 124 miles per hour.

Approximate based on calculated performance. With 25 gallons gas and four gallons oil, by air speed meter, 128 miles per hour; with 20 gallons gas and four gallons oil, by air speed meter, 127 miles per hour.

Take-off Distance—Tests made at Camp Kearney, near San Diego, Cal., at 6,000-foot altitude; oil—four gallons. Gallons gas, 36; gross weight, 2,900 pounds.

Weather Man Sees Perfect Day for Lindy

Fair weather and moderate temperatures will greet Lindbergh and his party when they arrive in Atlanta.

In fact, according to the forecast issued by C. F. von Herrmann, meteorologist of the United States weather station, Colonel Lindy will be accompanied on his flight through the Empire state with ideal climatic conditions.

A rise in temperature, reaching a level slightly above normal for October, is expected to result from the clear and sunny skies. However, the mercury column will at no time drop below the reach, uncomfortable heights, the weatherman stated. A range of approximately 60 to 78 degrees is predicted. Monday's temperature indicator covered the normal range for this time of the year, starting at 57 degrees and making its ascent at the 77-degree mark.

The instrument board of the Spirit of St. Louis is equipped with the following instruments:

Earth inductor compass, magnetic compass, turn and bank indicator, rate of climb indicator, air speed indicator, tachometer, thermometer oil pressure gauge, clock, altimeter.

In addition, he has one of a speed and drift meter which may be used over the fuselage by four nickel steel bolts.

DRIVE ON PEKIN ROUTED BY CHANG

BY CHARLES DAILEY. (Copyright 1937, by The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

Pao Ting Fu, Chihli Province, China, October 10.—Marshal Chang Tso-lin's armies, led by his son, celebrated the sixteenth anniversary of the republic by a counter-attack which routed the Shansi troops, thrust against Pekin from 111 miles southwest to Sino, a distance of 141 miles from the capital, while reliable information indicates that the northwestern sector accomplished a victory in the recovery of Suifu, 96 miles northwest of Pekin. The latter was the Shansi troops, being flanked, surrendered and were dispersed.

The southern front fighting has been heavy. Two trains of wounded were sent to Pekin tonight, while the Pao Ting Fu hospitals, including the American Congressional hospital, are filled.

The advance of the Shansi troops reached Wangtu, a distance of 111 miles from Pekin and 20 miles from Pao Ting Fu, having been lured by seeing the retirement of the Mukden forces, which suddenly turned with armored trains and mobile artillery, recovering the important city of Ting Chai, 125 miles from Pekin, with the line tonight 13 miles south of that point. The fighting was punctuated with heavy, incessant shrapnel bursts, rendered more deadly by flanking movements.

Military intelligence indicates that the Shansi troops, who fought with rare courage, have prepared strong defenses along the stream of the Puto Ho river, 167 miles southwest of Pekin, and five miles from the junction of the railway to the Shansi capital, which would be a serious capture, opening the way into Honan province for an attack upon the Christian general, Feng Yu-shiang, who also is being attacked from the east by Shantung troops.

Alabama Asks Payment by U. S. Of Power Tax

Washington, October 10.—(AP)—A state suit legal today and a possibility today due to Alabama's demand on the war department for payment of taxes on electric power produced by the government plant at Muscle Shoals.

Demand for payment at the rate of 2.5 of a mill per kilowatt hour was made on the war department September 20 by the Alabama tax commission. The communication which was not made public by the war department contained no argument but merely stated that the Alabama tax commission, under section 2-D, of section 2 of the act of the legislature of Alabama, approved July 22, 1927, payment in advance from the government, became due at the rate stated October 1. Early settlement of the account was asked for making out tax returns.

Neither the commission nor the war department has estimated the amount of money involved in this demand. The commission stated that the tax was imposed under the state law authorizing such collections for the privilege of manufacture of electric power within the state.

The matter was referred by Assistant Secretary Randolph MacNider under whose jurisdiction such matters fall, to the office of Major General Edgar A. Tamm, chief of army engineers, for recommendations as to what reply should be made.

At the offices of both Secretary Davis and Assistant Secretary MacNider it was indicated that engineers' report probably would be only a preliminary step in preparation of the war department's reply. The judge advocate general, legal adviser of the department of war, undoubtedly will be consulted as to the right of any state to impose such taxes on federal property or operation, it was said and the matter may also be referred to the attorney general.

The hydro-electric plant at Muscle Shoals is producing power which is sold by the government under lease to the Alabama Power company, pending final decision by congress as to the future of the plant.

UNIVERSITY BOARD TO RAISE $50,000

Arrangements were made Monday by the trustees of the University of Georgia to raise $50,000 needed to complete the new building for the use of the schools of commerce and journalism at a meeting held in the supreme court room at the capitol. Chief Justice Richard B. Russell, of the supreme court, chairman of the board, presided at the meeting. It was announced that work will be continued on this building and that it will be ready for occupancy January 1, 1928. Fee revenue receipts will be used to complete the building, which is to cost $215,000, and construction on which was stopped recently when funds for the building were exhausted.

Details of the plan of financing the building were not announced by F. W. Reed, secretary of the board, following the meeting.

The university trustees put themselves behind the war memorial board and for the time being, fee money will be used to complete the building, to prevent deterioration," Mr. Reed said.

The resignation of Professor W. H. Bock as dean of the graduate school was accepted. Dr. Bock will remain on the faculty of the university. His resignation was accepted with regret and Dr. R. P. Stephens, head of the department of mathematics, was named dean of the graduate school.

Fine Arts Department.
The board approved the establishment of a department of fine arts at the university's college of agriculture, to coordinate with the newly established department of music in the university.

Enthusiasm over the recent victory of the University of Georgia over Yale was reflected in a resolution adopted at the meeting of the trustees. The resolutions congratulated the team on the victory and paid tribute to the gameness of the Georgia team. The enthusiasm was so great that the trustees called on Dr. Stirling and others for brief football speeches.

An increase of approximately 10 per cent in salaries of members of the faculty of the university was announced. The increase will amount to about $19,000 a year, and will date from January 1, 1927, Mr. Reed said. E. A. Lowe, former secretary of the Alumni association of the university, was elected executive secretary of the association and director of publicity.

L. W. Belcher was appointed bookkeeper in the office of the treasurer. Purchase of a $10,000 pipe organ for the new department of music, an expenditure of $8,000 for furnishings in the new commerce and journalism building was authorized. Professor E. H. Dixon was promoted to associate professor of physics, and a resolution expressing congratulations and gratitude to the players and coaches of the Georgia football team for its defeat of Yale university were among other measures approved by the board.

Extra instructors were authorized in civil engineering and zoology, and $1,200 for purchase of books in the department of chemistry was approved. The trustees authorized the setting aside of $5,000 annually for improvement of grounds.

MOSELEY TO TAKE CAVALRY COMMAND AT FORT BLISS

Washington, October 10.—(AP)—Brigadier General George V. H. Moseley, now on duty in Hawaii, has been assigned to command the first cavalry division, Fort Bliss, Texas. He will relieve Brigadier General Edwin B. Vinson, who has been appointed superintendent of the West Point academy for duty until the new regular superintendent, Major General William R. Smith, returns from service in Hawaii in February.

Big Concerns Atlanta Bound Prompting Many To Enroll At Southern Business College

Preparing Now For Atlanta's Big Boom.

The announcements that the General Motors Company, the Chevrolet Motor Company, and other big enterprises, are going to put up mammoth plants in Atlanta; that the building of Atlanta's new viaduct, city hall and schoolhouses is about to begin, thereby requiring the employment of several thousand people, have already given a very perceptible impetus to business in this big and bustling city of ours and, as a consequence, young people are entering the Southern Business College every day from all parts of the country to get ready for business.

"It's the early bird that catches the worm," and it's the prepared young man or young woman that gets the job.

To secure a position and win success, the young person must be educated in the indispensable business branches of shorthand, typewriting, bookkeeping, penmanship, business arithmetic, commercial law, banking, business English, etc., and, while learning these subjects, must be trained in accuracy, concentration and persistency.

Such training as above outlined is given at the Southern more thoroughly and more quickly than anywhere else in this part of the country.

If in doubt as to which school would serve your interests best, call on twenty-five, fifty or a hundred of Atlanta's most prominent merchants and bankers and ask them—they have employed pupils from all the schools and know from where the more efficient ones come. Isn't that the best plan by which to select your business school? The Southern wants you to follow this plan of investigation, because it is the only way to learn which is the best school.

15 TO REPRESENT LOCAL CHAMBER AT POWER MEET

Fifteen prominent Atlanta men will represent the chamber of commerce this week at the Southern Appalachian Power conference in Chattanooga, it was indicated by the positive acceptances received by the chamber's officials.

The delegates who have accepted appointment and will attend the conference Thursday, Friday and Saturday are:

E. H. Ginn, G. E. Boulleau, Channing Cope, Dr. M. L. Brittain, James B. Nevin, C. E. Ayer, E. S. Genter, Jr., George J. Yundt, E. E. Dallas, William G. Smith, William C. Edwards, Henderson Hallman, W. V. Ballow, George W. West and B. S. Barker.

Water power problems, national flood relief measures, aviation and various topics of national interest will be discussed. Several government officials and other speakers of note are listed on the program.

BIG SINGING FESTIVAL SPONSORED BY CHURCH

A singing festival of magnificent proportions is scheduled for the fifth Sunday in October. It will be sponsored by the South Side Baptist church and will start at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon of October 30, at the Auditorium-Armory, according to announcement Monday.

Solo, duet, quartet, choir and congregational singing will feature the program, which is open to the public, a free-will offering to be made by the church for its new building fund. Male quartets and choirs with 25 singers or more are invited to compete in the vocal contests for prizes.

Solon Brukenmiller, tenor, is listed to render solo selections. Music will be furnished by the St. Mark's Methodist Sunday school orchestra, directed by Wallace Jackson, of the Howard theater orchestra; Professor Hull and his orchestra, and Dr. Charles Sheldon, well-known organist.

SOUTHERN RAILWAY SEEKS INJUNCTION ON BAXLEY ORDER

Hearing on a petition of the Southern railway to enjoin the Georgia public service commission from enforcing its orders requiring the building of a separate freight depot and the removal of certain sidetracks at Baxley, Ga., will be held Friday in United States district court.

Citizens of Baxley appealed to the commission for relief and on December 13 the commission visited Baxley and inspected the properties of the railroad there. On January 1, an order was issued, saying "the commission is of the opinion that the present outlay of the passenger and freight facilities as provided by the Southern railway (at Baxley) is inadequate and unreasonable."

The commission ordered the siding removed because, it was said to be working to the "inconvenience, injury and damage of citizens and patrons of the Southern railway at Baxley."

The present depot was declared inadequate and the railroad was ordered to submit blue prints of a freight depot to be built at Baxley. A temporary restraining order against the commission was issued Saturday by the United States district court.

Club To Elect.

Dramas of Real Life That Startle and Thrill

IN the foreword of a recent novel, the author says: "In this book none of the characters represent real persons, living or dead. They are wholly imaginary."

Which is just another way of saying: "This story isn't life; it is simply a product of my imagination."

What a striking contrast to this and all other fiction is presented by the stories that appear each month in True Story Magazine. The characters are not fictitious; they are real. The events are not imaginary; they really happened.

In no other magazine will you find such amazingly frank and powerfully dramatic narratives of real life. In these compelling stories, the very hearts and souls of the writers are revealed. Their struggles, temptations, defeats, triumphs, loves, hates, joys and sorrows become an open book to all who wish to read. The November issue alone contains fifteen gripping true-life chronicles that fascinate, startle and thrill. Your newsdealer has it. Get your copy today.

(Right)—"THE BULLET HAD FOUND ITS MARK"—Love of a strong-willed, determined girl for a man who was marked for death by a lawless band of mountaineers proves the manning of action in this thrilling heart-clutching story, "Pride of the Hills," in November True Story Magazine.

(Left)—"HE PUSHED HIS WAY IN"—Married, a home, an adorable baby—what bliss to a girl who had always known loneliness. Then a husband's careless neglect forced her to accept the attentions of another man out of sheer hunger for companionship. Every man, every woman should read "A Lonely Heart's Call," November True Story.

(Right)—"HE PRESSED MY HAND"—Her home life broken, the lives of her parents shattered by divorce, Vera was left to face the world's pitfalls with a heart hardened by disillusionment and despair. How she met the crisis of her life on the difficult road she had to travel is told in "The Eyes of Our Children," November True Story Magazine.

(Left)—"MY HEART SEEMED TO STOP"—Never was a girl more gloriously happy than Beryl in her married life with Gustave, hero of the air. Then the beautiful, fascinating Miss Swift came on the scene as an aviation pupil. One day they sped into the clouds on a secret and mysterious flight. What happened is revealed in "Secret of the Sky," True Story for November.

(Above)—"STUPID WITH WINE, HE OPENED THE DOOR"—A young, fun-loving, motherless girl, living in an isolated village, it was not strange that Marie fell madly in love with the handsome young violinist who came to the town. Nor could the threats and pleadings of her poor father stem the tide of folly into which she innocently plunged. (See "The Road to Ecstasy," November True Story.)

UNFILLED ORDERS OF U. S. STEEL SHOW DECLINE

New York, October 10.—(AP)—Unfilled orders of the United States Steel corporation at the close of September, reported today, decreased 47,924 tons, compared with the preceding month. The aggregate of 3,148,113 tons, while the smallest amount for September 30 in five years, was ahead of the figures for July and June, but 451-

396 tons below the total for the same date of 1926. The small drop came within the trade's expectation, indicating no adjustments were necessary at the close of the month. It is estimated that shipments in September were about 975,000 against 950,000 tons in August, indicating some deliveries were made from stock on hand, as input production in the middle of the month went below 65 per cent of capacity. Weekly gains in the corporation's activities, however, have been shown since then, the rate now being more than 68 per cent.

If teeth are "off color"

Clear whiteness can be regained this new way, and your gums firmed and toned. Combat that dangerous film.

JUST because your teeth seem dull, don't believe they are naturally "off color."

You can restore them to clear whiteness.

Dental science has made some important discoveries in lightening cloudy teeth—a new method in tooth and gum treatment.

It acts on new principles. With right daily care you can work a transformation on your teeth. Can change your whole appearance.

Now a 10-day test is being offered to start you. Just send coupon.

It's just a film that mere brushing won't combat

Run your tongue across your teeth. You will feel a film . . . a slippery, viscous coating that dulls and clouds their beauty.

Ordinary methods won't successfully combat it. That's why, no matter how hard you try now, your teeth remain "off color."

Remove that film and what you see will amaze you. You are simply hiding their beauty now . . . just like dingy grime on ivory.

New methods whiten teeth,
Firm the Gums

Film is charged, too, with most tooth and gum troubles. It clings to teeth, gets into crevices and stays. Germs by the million multiply in it and lay your teeth open to decay. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

Old methods failed in combating it successfully. Then new ones were found and embodied in a new-type dentifrice called Pepsodent.

It acts to curdle the film and then remove it. Then to firm the gums and better to protect them.

4 DEAD, 2 DYING IN KY. BATTLE

Princeton, Ky., October 10.—(AP)—Four men are dead and two reported dying today as the result of two gun fights in the southern part of Floyd county late Sunday afternoon and night.

W. L. Osborn, chief of police of Martin; his son, Joe Ed Osborn, 17, and two Mullins brothers, of Jacks creek, are dead. Felix Flanery, 35 years old, a farmer of Burck branch, who killed the Osborns, was in a Martin hospital, paralyzed by a shot through the chest and spine. West Hall, said to have shot the Mullins, was not expected to survive a wound in the chest and body, according to reports here.

The elder Osborn, 50, is survived by his widow and twelve children. Flanery was angered because Chief Osborn had shot and wounded his uncle, I. Bradley, when attempting to arrest him a week ago. He came to Martin late Sunday and opened fire on the Osborns on sight, killing the father outright and fatally wounding Joe Ed. The youth raised up on his elbows and shot Flanery. He then collapsed and died in twenty minutes.

Sheriff C. Y. Martin began an investigation of the report that West Hall staggered into the home of a relative late Sunday night and said he had killed Jim Roe Mullins and his brother. Hall said, "I guess I am done for, too." He gave no explanation of the shooting.

Fulton Police Commissioner Gives Press Car

Walter B. Stewart, chairman of the police committee of the Fulton commission, Monday detailed an official police car for the use of the representatives of the Atlanta press in the Lindbergh parade.

The commission has furnished labor and other essentials to assure the perfect condition of the airfield and roads in and around Atlanta's airport and will cooperate with the city authorities in making the welcome a tremendous success.

All employees of the county were granted holiday from 11 o'clock Tuesday morning through the remainder of the day in order that they might participate in the Lindbergh celebration, by action of the commission.

"Much credit is due Fulton county for the fine condition of Candler field," Alderman William B. Hartfield, chairman of the air port committee of the special committee, stated Monday night. "Members of the commission have been prompt in surfacing roadways and in making the field in perfect condition when Lindbergh comes. They have cooperated in a loyal spirit, and the officials in an effort to have Candler field made safe and ready for the visit of Georgia's most distinguished visitor."

SUPREME COURT REVIEWS LOUISIANA LABOR TROUBLES

Washington, October 10.—(AP)—The labor troubles in Bogalusa, La., during which L. E. Williams was killed, will be reviewed by the supreme court in a case brought by his widow.

Alleging that her husband's death had resulted from the acts of guards and agents of the Great Southern Lumber company, of Pennsylvania as a part of a conspiracy to prevent the organization of laborers employed by it, Mrs. Williams obtained a judgment against the company for $50,000 which the trial court reduced to $30,000. On appeal this decision was reversed and the case sent back for a new trial. From that decision Mrs. Williams sought a review by the supreme court, contending that it was based on erroneous construction of the law.

GRAND JURY MEETING POSTPONED ONE DAY

Postponement until Wednesday of the regular bi-weekly meeting Tuesday of the Fulton county grand jury was announced Monday by Solicitor General John A. Boykin.

County officials will have a half-holiday today in order that they may participate in the Lindbergh celebration, and due to this fact the grand jury session was postponed.

School nurse says all girls should know this

TALKING to a roomful of high school girls on personal hygiene, an experienced district nurse said:

"One of the basic rules of health for girls is to keep the system functioning naturally at all times. Normal exercise and diet habits should be encouraged. But when necessary there is no harm in taking nujol, since it works mechanically and can't disturb the normal functions of any organ of the body. Particularly with girls, there are times when nujol should always be taken. Take a spoonful every night for a few days. It's a thoroughly safe and harmless method. It won't cause distress or gas pains or griping."

Not Like Medicine

Nujol is different from any other substance. It contains no drugs or medicine. It can be taken safely no matter how you are feeling because it is so pure and harmless, and works so easily. Every woman should keep a bottle on hand. Every drugstore has this remarkable substance. Get the genuine. Produced by the famous Chemica. Division of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey. Look for the Nujol bottle with the label on the back that you can read right through the bottle. —(adv.)

Borah Opposes Any Progressive New Party Plan

Washington, October 10.—(United News.)—Republican progressives are giving no consideration to a possible third party in their conferences regarding the presidential and congressional situations, leaders of the group said today. Borah is understood to oppose such a step.

Senator McMaster, South Dakota republican, has been invited to join the group at its conference tomorrow. Senator Borah, Idaho, and Senator Norris, Nebraska, are both considered as possible presidential candidates. The aim of the progressives is to unite behind one candidate and solidify the influence of the west at the next republican convention. Borah will attempt to get the Idaho delegation and Norris the Nebraska delegation. But beyond that, discussion has resulted in no decisions due to the complications caused by the strength of Lowden in the state represented by some of the insurgents. Most of them favor putting Norris forward.

Those asked to attend the conference tomorrow are Borah, Norris, Brookhart of Iowa, Frazier and Nye of North Dakota, La Follette and Baile, of Wisconsin, are expected to participate as soon as they arrive. Insurgents intend to continue their conferences throughout the coming session of congress.

FILM MEN START 'HOUSE CLEANING'

New York, October 10.—(AP)—Invited by the federal trade commission to do their own house cleaning, about 150 leaders of the motion picture industry gathered here today to rake over their trade practices and sort out the good from the bad.

Although many executives were among the delegates, no actors or actresses were announced as participants.

The conference was called solely to consider trade practices of production, distribution and exhibition, and the actors were interested only as is the public, in that both would benefit by the general stabilizing of the industry.

More than a score of producers, 64 theater owners, and 15 operators of producer and distributor owned theaters were among the delegates. Others present were from the counting houses, saloons and mechanical departments of the various branches of the industry.

Two petitions have been filed with the commission by W. M. Seabury as attorneys for different clients asking that "appropriate proceedings" be instituted against Will H. Hays, movie " czar," and others who he says comprise a motion picture trust.

One of the petitions is signed by William W. Hodgkinson, founder and first president of the Film Distributing company, known as the Paramount Pictures corporation, which has since been absorbed by the Paramount Famous Players Lasky corporation. Hodgkinson charges the "trust" with unfair trade practices.

The other petition is made by the Irish American vigilance committee and charges that theaters have been forced by the "trust" to show pictures ridiculing Ireland.

Public Official Loses Libel Suit Against Editor

Jefferson City, Mo., October 10.—(AP)—Free comment and criticism of the public policy of public officials by newspapers is justified when it relates to a matter of interest, subject to its substantial truth and the want of malice, the Missouri supreme court ruled today.

The ruling was made in a decision in the case of Will H. Zorn, editor and publisher of the weekly Howell County Gazette, of West Plains. A jury awarded $800 to J. B. Aldridge, sheriff of the county, for an alleged libelous article in Zorn's paper September 4, 1924.

The article declared moonshine liquor and intoxicated persons were making appearances at a religious revival and picnics in the county and asserted if the officials did not investigate and take action "the people of Howell county would see a change in November." The article did not directly name the sheriff or other officials.

The district court of appeals affirmed the verdict, holding the story in the paper was not privileged. The supreme court overruled the appellate court, holding the article was privileged.

The opinion states that the plaintiff bears the burden to show the falsity of the article, and the presence of express malice.

DR. LYONS SPEAKS AT GATE CITY LODGE MEETING TONIGHT

Dr. J. Spole Lyons, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will be the principal speaker at the meeting of the Gate City lodge, No. 2, F. & A. M., tonight, in the Masonic temple. It was stated Monday. It was announced that former Senator Hoke Smith, who was scheduled to make the feature address, will not be present.

Senator Smith was prevented from attending in order to participate in honoring Colonel Lindbergh while in the city today, it was stated. Another feature of the program will be the appearance of City Attorney James L. Mayson.

The occasion will be the regular meeting of the lodge will involve no hard work, and will be of a social nature.

POWER BODY STUDIES COOSA RIVER PROTEST

Washington, October 10.—(AP)—The federal power commission took under advisement today after a hearing of a delegation representing the chamber of commerce of Gadsden, Ala., against the granting of a federal permit for power development to the People's Hydro-Electric company for a project in the Coosa river, near that place. The delegation contended that the company had enjoyed rights under state authority for 15 years without supplying power and urged that the Alabama Power company's application be approved instead of that of the People's Hydro-Electric company.

ALFONSO OPENS NEW ASSEMBLY

Madrid, October 10.—(United News.)—Spain's new national assembly met today for the first time, taking the place of the old Spanish parliament which was dissolved four years ago by General Primo de Rivera, the dictator, when he seized power.

Not a single military uniform was seen in the parliament building, which was crowded to overflowing by spectators.

Among the 400 delegates, appointed by De Rivera, were 10 women. Never before in Spain's long history have women taken part in the country's legislative affairs.

Anticipating socialist dissatisfaction with the assembly's restricted power, it is not a legislative body in the American or British sense, but is more of an advisory board—extraordinary police precautions were taken to guard King Alfonso and De Rivera, who came to Madrid from Morocco.

"I hereby open the national assembly," said the king, as the crowd and the orchestra applauded and shouted, "Long live the king."

Thus for the first time in four years the people had a representation of some sort in the government. But the military dictatorship of De Rivera, the prime minister, prevails.

The assembly does not have the power to enact legislation. It may merely approve or disapprove the measures submitted to it by the king or the prime minister. It is understood that the body will have a voice in formulation of the national budget.

In choosing the delegates, De Rivera selected technicians, such as engineers, railroad experts, chemists and industrial men. Naturally, all have pledged allegiance to the man who appointed them.

Aviator to Visit Wounded Heroes At Hospital 48

William E. Tate, national commander of the Disabled American Veterans, an Atlantan who has returned to the city for the sole purpose of assisting "the boys" in giving Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh a rousing welcome, will be among the leaders who will extend cordial greetings to the air viking when he visits United States hospital, No. 48, today on his tour of Atlanta.

Patients not confined to their beds will be permitted to greet the hero of the New York to Paris non-stop air dash in front of the buildings, but those unfortunate who are bedridden from wounds suffered in service to their country will not be slighted. Lindbergh will visit the men who offered their all in defense of America, even if it means that he will be late at Grant field, where impatient thousands will await his coming.

Lindbergh will proceed to the entrance of the hospital, where Colonel George L. Johnson, medical officer in charge, will greet him and introduce him to Commander Tate.

Frank Kempton, commander of Argonne post, No. 1, American Legion, will welcome him, and Mrs. Arthur Hazzard, president of the legion auxiliary, will extend greetings from her organization. As a Warren G. Harding, commander of the Georgia department of the legion, also will make a short address welcoming Lindbergh in behalf of the department.

$75,000 IN BONDS GIVEN COLLEGE OF CHARLESTON

Charleston, S. C., October 10.—(AP)—The college of Charleston has received a gift of $75,000 in municipal bonds from an unnamed donor, with the specification that even-eighths of the proceeds from the bonds each year be used in current expenses and that one-eighths be re-invested. The gift is the largest to the college in 60 years.

The gift, it was made known at the institution, came in the way of a memorial to W. Jefferson Bennett, founder of the public school system in Charleston.

Announcement of the gift was made by Rutledge Rivers, chairman of the board of trustees, at chapel exercises today.

SIMPLE HOME MIXTURE DARKENS GRAY HAIR

Cincinnati Barber Tells How Any One Can Prepare It in 5 Minutes.

Any man or woman can easily look twenty years younger by simply darkening their gray, faded, or streaky hair. This is now easy to accomplish with a recipe given by a well known Cincinnati barber.

Simply take a half-pint of water, add one ounce of bay rum, 1-4 ounce of glycerine and a small box of Barbo Compound. Shake and it is ready to use. These ingredients can be bought at drug stores at trifling cost.

Applied to the hair twice weekly this delightful mixture quickly gives the desired shade. It is easy to use, is not sticky or greasy, will not color the scalp and does not rub off.—(adv.)

Do You Know What Really Ails You?

If you are ailing continually without knowing just what is the matter, help Nature by eating easily digested foods, by keeping the bowels open and by staying outdoors.

As another splendid aid to Nature, take Tanlac and see what even a single bottle will do.

Mrs. J. F. Spiller, of 18 Louise St., Union, S. C., says: "After several weeks in the hospital, I was still very weak and nervous, could not digest food and had bad dizzy spells and headaches. Three bottles of Tanlac left me eating heartily and did away with my stomach trouble entirely."

Tanlac is one medicine that can be relied on as a quick and sure relief for general debility and weakness, sick headache, stomach ailments, nervousness, loss of appetite and sleep.

Tanlac is a good, pure medicine. It contains safe, vegetable ingredients of roots, barks and herbs that are recognized by the United States Pharmacopoeia. Get it from your druggist and begin to take it right away. Your money back if it doesn't help you.

SUN OF VIRGINIA DRY GIVEN RUM SENTENCE

Richmond, Va., October 10.—(United News.)—Carroll V. Hepburn, 23, son of Dr. David Hepburn, Anti-saloon league superintendent in Virginia, was sentenced today to ten days in jail and a $50 fine for transporting liquor in an automobile belonging to the league. He will not appeal, but will start his sentence at once. A jury acquitted the youth of driving a car while under influence of liquor.

Sugar-coating Trouble

Nature Sets Her Own Standards and Lays Down Her Own Rules

The quotation given here from a Health Bulletin by Dr. Copeland, formerly Health Commissioner of the City of New York, is worthy of the thoughtful consideration of sufferers from constipation. It is the opinion of a nationally known health authority. Read it carefully.

The reference to water, with the proper mineral content, describes accurately Pluto Water, which for more than a generation has been recommended by physicians for constipation, however stubborn. Pluto

ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.

U. S. Senator from New York and formerly Health Commissioner of the City of New York

Dr. Copeland says: "Mineral waters of the right sort are preferable to many of the cathartic compounds on the market. Their power to overcome the immediate effects of constipation is unquestioned. They are soothing and healing to the tissues. Sugar-coated pills are pleasant to take which may add to their danger. That is the reason they are coated with sugar. They are no less drastic and habit-forming because they appeal to the taste. Mineral waters pass through the system, doing nothing else but to flush and cleanse the intestinal tract."

Water "flushes the bowels and washes away the impurities."

It relieves constipation in 30 minutes to 2 hours after drinking. It is gentle, prompt, pleasant and non-habit forming. Remember, that however introduced, sugar-coated or otherwise, drastic drugs weaken the normal functions of the intestinal tract, and gradually enslave the user.

Pluto Water is bottled at the Springs, French Lick, Indiana. It is sold at all drug counters and at fountains. Use Pluto Water—insure regularity and good health.

Martin - Stokes Wedding Party Honored at Supper

Honoring their daughter, Miss Margaret Virginia Martin, and her fiancé, Arthur Donald Stokes, of Miami, Fla., whose marriage will be a social event of importance taking place at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon at the Ponce de Leon Avenue Baptist church, Mr. and Mrs. William T. Martin entertained at a buffet supper Monday evening at their home on North Ivy road. The lovely affair followed the wedding rehearsal at the church at 7:30 o'clock, the guests including the members of the bridal party, the out-of-town guests who are here for the wedding and a few intimate friends of the bride and groom.

The natural beauty of the home was enhanced by a profusion of fall flowers, including dahlias, cosmos, asters and geraniums, in a variety of brilliant autumn tints.

Mrs. Martin received the guests wearing a handsome gown of black lace posed over a slip of flesh-colored silk.

The attractive bride-elect wore for the occasion a becoming model of flame-colored georgette with trimmings of silver.

For Grouchy Husbands

What an old bear he is when he comes home from work in the evenings! Of course he's been working hard all day, and the trip home has probably been trying—but then, your day has been trying, too, and you're cheerful and pleasant. You don't realize, perhaps, that it was that cup of RIDGWAYS TEA you stopped for at five o'clock that makes the difference between your temper and his. You don't see any excuse for his biting your head off and growling.

Well, then, tomorrow suppose you try this simple remedy for grouchy husbands that other wives have found works just like a charm. Tomorrow night when he comes home, offer him a freshly brewed cup of RIDGWAYS TEA. Give it to him just as he likes it—with sugar and cream or lemon. He'll probably say he doesn't want it at first. He'll growl just as usual. But as soon as that delicious, stimulating flavor reaches him, he'll change his mind. Two minutes later he'll be a different man. He'll feel warmed and soothed inside. His worries will somehow melt away. He'll feel revived, refreshed, comforted—even cheerful. In another minute he'll beam at you and be his own sweet self again.

Any one of the three perfect blends of RIDGWAYS TEA can do this. Their world-famous flavor and refreshing goodness have saved many a man's temper and many a woman's disposition!

"The First Thing You Think of"—RIDGWAYS TEA
THREE perfect blends to meet all demands:
RIDGWAYS "Her Majesty's Blend"—originally blended for the special and private use of Queen Victoria of Great Britain.

Legionnaires Find British King Awkwardness Displayed in Addressing Monarch And Queen Quite Human

BY KEITH JONES.
London, October 10.—(United News.)—The American Legion "Good Will" delegation have met King George and Queen Mary and have found them human.

Filing into Buckingham palace Monday to be introduced to the king and queen by Howard P. Savage, retiring legion commander, and American Ambassador Alanson B. Houghton, the legionnaires and their wives were filled with trepidation.

They feared a lack of knowledge in the royal amenities, floundering and wondering how to do what and when. But the king and queen met the Americans on their own ground and made them feel quite at home.

Some legionnaires were in the party, many with their wives. All shook hands with the king and queen.

Creased at Sides.
King George's trousers were creased at the sides, instead of down the middle.

Most of the women attempted to curtsy the queen, some achieving a real success but others performing awkwardly, their heads swaying from side to side and their hands trembling.

The first woman to meet the king was puzzled. She didn't know whether to shake hands, shoulder high or in the American fashion. King George, realizing her plight, held his hand low and gave the regular United States handshake. And that was the order of the day.

"I hope the fog has not spoiled your plans," the king remarked to Savage.

"A fine looking lot," King George said, looking over the delegation.

Blind Man Greeted.
When Frank Schobel, a blind legionnaire, entered the audience room, the king went straight to him, greeted him first and asked how he had lost his sight.

The queen, overhearing the story, left her place at the head of the line, stepped forward and without saying a word pressed Schobel's hand.

Queen Mary was dressed in a high-necked fawn-colored gown which reached the heels. A number of women remarked afterward:

"The queen is far more attractive than her pictures indicated."

At night, the delegation gave a dinner to the British Legion, ending the formal events of the five-day whirlwind visit of England. The legionnaires will Tuesday morning for Southampton on the Leithampton.

Mrs. Nelms - Issues Invitation to Tea For Mrs. Dewey

Mrs. William Stockton Nelms has issued invitations to a tea to be given at her home Wednesday afternoon, October 12, in honor of Mrs. Malcolm Howard Dewey, a recent bride.

Receiving with Mrs. Nelms will be Mrs. Malcolm H. Dewey, Mrs. Robert B. Ennis and Mrs. James O. Sanders. Others assisting will be Mesdames Harvey W. Cox, Goodrich C. White, Edgar H. Johnson, Clifford G. Thompson, Theodore H. Jack, Comer M. Woodward, James G. Lester, Osburn R. Quayle and Misses Melissa and Mary Spencer Jack.

The invited guests include the members of the Emory University Woman's club.

Lesh-Watkins.

Judge and Mrs. Edgar Watkins, announce the marriage of their son, James H. Watkins, to Miss Martha Lesh, of Boston, Mass., the marriage having taken place Sunday afternoon at the First Congregational church, performed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Watkins are scheduled to arrive in Atlanta within a few days and will make their home with the groom's parents on Piedmont road until they are definitely located in Atlanta.

Mr. Watkins graduated from Oglethorpe university in the class of 1925, and has been taking a post graduate course at Harvard university.

Mrs. Watkins is prominent in social circles in Boston and is the daughter of Mrs. and Mr. Frederick Lesh, a prominent shoe manufacturer. She is a niece of Mrs. Thorwell Jacob, wife of the president of Oglethorpe college, and has visited here several times. She is a student in Radcliffe college, of Boston, Mass.

"The Only Girl" To Be Presented.

Sponsored by a group of well-known Atlantans prominently identified with the social, musical, art and educational interests of the city and state, the production of "The Only Girl," a play by Victor Herbert's opera, "The Only Girl," on November 12, in the auditorium of the Atlanta Woman's club.

The proceeds from the performance will go to the endowment fund being raised for the college. The production will be quite professional in tone and the cast includes some very fine singers and a feature of the production will be the dancing of ten pupils of Mrs. Spiker. The opera itself is a musical and gay and is a general favorite.

Besides the Atlanta sponsors, about two hundred persons will come to the city for the performance from Gainesville. The patrons and patronesses include Atlanta and Gainesville citizens.

William Albright Predicted Aviation Wonders at 10 Years

BY LAMAR SPARKS.
Many years ago a group of boys were flying a kite in Wacochee Valley, Ala. As the wind puffed into the paper sides and wriggled its string tail across the sky, William Henry Albright caught something of the possibilities of aircraft.

"If I live to be an old man people will be flying in the air," he said. And the crowd laughed. Also the little fellows and the countrymen standing near.

Shift the Scene.
Shift the scene. Change the kite to the giant plane that today will circle the city. See little William Albright, not as a boy of 10, but as a genial, gentle soul, and you have the picture of an old man who is celebrating his eighty-seventh birthday Tuesday by the fulfillment of a childhood vision of long ago.

To some the Spirit of St. Louis will be the ship that united two continents. To others it will be a plane that connects the interests of a people. But to William Henry Albright, of Oakland road, pioneer Georgian, who is celebrating his eighty-seventh birthday today, it will be the ship that binds the present with the golden age of the past when a fellow sees visions and dreams dreams.

"I always felt that some day people would fly," said Mr. Albright as he sat Monday in the store of M. Rich & Brothers and let the enthusiasm of this incident in the past color his eyes a deeper blue and wrinkle the lines about his mouth in a boyish smile. "If the force of the wind can blow that paper frame and carry it into the sky, bigger things are going to happen. I always said, 'And,' he continued, laughing. "I even thought that maybe they might go to the moon."

Mr. Albright's hair is silvery and it frames his face like a silent tribute to age that is graceful and full. He laughs often and well, sometimes bursting into a chuckle that heightens the glow of an otherwise genial smile.

Visits Daily at Rich's.
For the last few years Mr. Albright has made a daily visit to Rich's trying there among friends and acquaintances to recover from an illness which nearly took his life.

Two Buena Vista Girls Are Sought

Buena Vista, Ga., October 10.—(P.) Search for Miss Luella Highnote and Miss Olive Brasington, who are alleged to have been kidnapped by Ralph Williams and Richard Young, members of a carnival company, which was a part of the Marion county centennial here last week, was extended today to several states.

The alleged kidnapping occurred about 8 o'clock Saturday night and became known shortly afterward when Miss Highnote gave her small brother a note to give him his lunch. The note said: "Please forgive me, by the time you read this I will be married."

A reward of $100 has been offered for the apprehension of the quartet. Warrants have been issued for Williams and Young charging them with kidnapping. One of the men, it is said, is married and has a wife and child living in Indiana.

Jersey Murder Witness Jailed

Davenport, Iowa, October 10.—(P.) Sought as an important state's witness in the Lillendahl slaying case of May's Landing, N. J., a Moline, Ill. man was taken into custody today, but authorities did not reveal his name.

The arrest was made by Police Chief Harrell of Davenport, apparently on information from New Jersey. He is held for eastern authorities. The man, a salesman, was said to have seen a blue automobile drive away from the murder scene.

Two Men Indicted In Howell Death

Eastman, Ga., October 10.—(P.)—Tom Buchanan, member of a prominent Dodge county family, and Willie Thomas, negro, were indicted today by the Dodge county grand jury for the slaying of W. H. Howell, 60, wealthy reclusive farmer, whose body was found in a shallow grave on his farm a week ago.

The negro testified before the grand jury that he saw Buchanan kill Howell. He said he promised him $150 and an automobile if he would kill Howell.

The two men will face trial Wednesday.

Nov. 28 Is Set As Date For Trial

May's Landing, N. J., October 10. (United News.)—Scenes which thrilled northern Jersey a year ago during the famous Hall-Mills trial at Somerville will be reenacted in the quaint colonial courthouse of this southern New Jersey village next month when Mrs. Margaret Lillendahl and Willie Beach are slated to trial on charges of murdering the former's husband.

November 28 will mark the beginning of the Lillendahl trial, that date having been set by the Supreme Court Justice Campbell, before whom the defendants pleaded not guilty.

Between now and the opening of the trial, the Phillips, attorneys for the aristocratic widow, and Edison Hedges, counsel for Beach, the poultry fancier, will marshal their witnesses from the vicinity of Big Swamp lane.

It was in that wooded byway that Mrs. Lillendahl, 72-year-old narcotics specialist, was shot to death last September 15, also off-lit he named by the state as the trying place of the two defendants, who are alleged to have murdered the doctor for his $25,000 insurance money so that there would be no obstacle in the way of their love.

Three men from Trenton are ready to testify that Beach is the man they saw racing from the scene of the killing in a blue coupe on the night of September 15.

Mrs. Lillendahl already has admitted that she was there when her husband was murdered. She asserts, however, that he was shot by two negroes whom she believes to have been either robbers or drug addicts.

Whether the defendants will attempt to prove that they were no more friendly than ordinary neighbors remains a secret until the trial. Until then the defendants will remain in jail. Justice Campbell cited the Hall-Mills case as a precedent in denying them bail.

Lung Collapse Costs Boy Life

Palacios, Texas, October 10.—(P.)—Carl Berry, 16, lost his fight with death here today after his fellow high school students had unceasingly pumped his arms up and down for 32 hours and 10 minutes to keep the spark of life in his body.

Death occurred during a brief intermission when the friends working over him gave way to a pulmonologist. Under the direction of a physician the boy's companions had worked in 15 minute shifts to keep the spark of life in his body.

Berry was injured in a football game a week ago. Saturday he suddenly found breathing difficult. Physicians advocated immediate artificial respiration and a group of fellow football players volunteered. Berry joked with them about his condition but late Sunday he fell into a coma. He emerged from it twice and greeted with a smile the young men who were trying to sustain his life.

He became weaker this morning and at about 2 o'clock this afternoon watchers saw the breath of life depart. Four physicians failed to agree on the cause of the paralysis. Some of them pronounced it infantile and others said it was creeping. All agreed that the injury suffered in the football game, in all probability, had nothing to do with it.

20,000 Pupils Back in School After Epidemic

Wichita, Kan., October 10.—(P.)—Twenty thousand pupils returned to school in Wichita today after an enforced vacation since Tuesday when the buildings were closed due to several cases of infantile paralysis.

All school buildings have been fumigated and the city health officer believes danger of further spread of the disease is past.

U. S. District Judge Is Sued For Divorce

Denver, Colo., October 10.—(P.)—Mrs. Cynthia Edrington Symes today filed a suppressed suit for divorce from J. Foster Symes, federal district judge. Mrs. Symes charges extreme mental cruelty in her complaint.

The couple have lived in separate homes since April 20, when they made an agreement regarding the custody of their children, Virginia, 11, and Cynthia, 5.

Judge and Mrs. Symes were married in Memphis, Tenn., January 26, 1916.

Rivera Denies Spain Planning To Leave Africa

Madrid, October 10.—(United News.)—General Primo De Rivera, Spanish dictator, has denied a rumor in the London Sunday Times which quoted him as saying "Spain would be better off out of Northern Africa."

"I never saw an English newspaperman while I was in Morocco," he told the United Press Monday, "and never made any such statement to anybody."

"Spain is well off with its possessions," De Rivera said.

Many Children, Women Drown At Ocean Fete

Novon de Vazim, North Portugal, October 10.—(P.)—Many persons were drowned, including women and children, during a festival held today for the benefit of the fishing folk here.

Two boats filled with men, women and children, overturned. Sailors on a nearby warship jumped into the sea and saved seven persons. Only four bodies had been recovered this afternoon.

Airman Arrives.
Batavia, Java, October 10.—(P.)—Lieutenant Koppen, Dutch aviator, who left Holland nine days ago carrying the first air mail to the Dutch East Indies, arrived here this afternoon. The object of his flight was to test the practicability of an air mail service to and from the Dutch East Indies.

It's a Pity To Stay Fat In these days

Don't do it, when so many have found the right way to reduce. You see them in every circle—happy, healthy people who have lost that burden in an easy, pleasant way.

Since the year 1907, people have been fighting excess fat by scientific methods. They combat the cause. Were fat as common as it once was the dress styles of today could never have come into vogue.

That modern method is embodied in Marmola prescription tablets. Over-fat people have used them for twenty years—millions of boxes of them. Now you see the results wherever you look. Why not enjoy them yourself?

Users of Marmola are not forced to abnormal exercise or diet. Moderation helps, but starvation is taboo. One simply takes four tablets daily until weight comes down to normal.

Every box of Marmola contains the formula, also the reasons for the many good results. You know just what you are taking and how you get the effects. You will have no fear of Marmola when you know the scientific facts.

Go get a box today. Learn how it acts, and why. Then watch the results in new vitality and loss of weight. Then tell your friends. You can do no greater kindness to people who overweigh.

Marmola prescription tablets are sold by all druggists at $1 per box. If your druggist is out, he will get them at once from his jobber.

Tech and Alabama Begin Preparing For Saturday's Game

2 Backfield Stars of Tide Are Missing

Wade Bearing Down on Men as They Start Grind for Big Game.

University, Ala., October 10.—Coach Wallace is bearing down on his Alabama men preparing them for the battle with the Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets on Grant field next Saturday. He started them out on the first day's work this afternoon as though it would be an easy practice, but it turned out to be anything else. He put them through the usual blocking and tackling and then they ran signals until their tongues hung out.

After the preliminary warming up the freshmen furnished opposition for a long, hard scrimmage. All the men were used in the scrimmage and those who played in the L. S. U. game were not able to work very much as they were sore. That was one hard game, all the men getting pretty well bugged up. The sight of Hicks walking around with his arm under his shirt due to a wrenched shoulder was not a very pleasant sight as his running mate is in bed with a badly-bumped head. Badly bumped or whatever you want to call it, but Taylor said that he had never received such a lick before.

Backfield Weak.

With Taylor and Hicks out, the Alabama backfield will be weakened materially and might prove to be more than the Tide can lose. They are two important cogs in the machinery, and with them absent the brunt of the backfield work will fall on Brown, Holm, Brasfield and McClintock, but they will need help. Four men cannot form the backfield of a team to go through a whole game.

The freshmen are all right. They hit their match in the heavy L. S. U. forwards but are ready to go again. Alabama has a mighty strong line. With Earl Smith and Beale on the ends and the mountainous Pickard and Pearce at the tackles, Bowdoin and Hagler at guards, and George Dye at center, the Crimson Wall is well taken care of, but the line cannot carry the ball.

Backfield men are needed in the Tide camp and needed bad. There are some fair reserves but the main ones are missing. The greatest problem seems to be in a punter. Brasfield has been punting, but he is slow in getting them off and it is a great danger every time a punt is attempted. He pulled some clever work, though, in the past game when he fumbled two passes from center and both times picked the ball up and got a good punt away.

Working Men Hard.

How Alabama will stack up against Tech remains to be seen. There is no basis for comparison yet and the best way is to wait and see how the score will be.

Wade is working his men hard in trying to get them ready for this game as he realizes it is going to be one of the hardest of the year for the Tide, and he must have his men at their best in order to come out on the side of the slate preferred by the Capstone.

Hartwell High Wins Over Thomson, 13-6

Hartwell, Ga., October 10.—Hartwell High school added another victim to its long list of victories and remained undefeated by turning back the attack of the Thomson High school eleven here by the score of 13 to 6.

Hartwell got away to an early lead when Joe Skelton carried the oval over for the first touchdown. Hartwell counted again in the last few minutes of play when Johnson intercepted a forward pass and dashed 30 yards over the goal line. Thomson scored in the third period. Joe and "Pug" Skelton and Johnson starred for Hartwell while Agos and Turner were best for the losers.

BULLDOGS GIVEN ROUSING WELCOME UPON RETURN FROM NORTHERN VICTORY

Athens, Ga., October 10.—(AP)—Georgia's Bulldogs, fresh from a 14-10 victory over Yale last Saturday at New Haven, a feat heretofore unattained by a Georgia eleven in an intercollegiate clash, were back home this afternoon with all Athens joining in the welcome.

A special engine, decorated in red and black hunting standards of the university, was dispatched earlier in the afternoon to Lula, where the Georgia party left the main line of the Southern railway, over which route the entire throng launched one of the biggest welcomes ever staged here.

Petrel Eleven Starts Final Week of Work

Team Works Hard for Opening Game With Citadel Saturday.

BY FRED McEACHIN.

With the Citadel tussle, the opening game of the season for the Oglethorpe Petrels, Coach Robertson sent his varsity coaches through a long, hard workout Monday afternoon at the school while the Petrel Rats were dropping their opening game to the Bluebirds of U. S. B.

Because of this fact, the varsity men did not scrimmage, but instead, labored all afternoon tackling and clipping the dummy, running down under punts, catching passes and running signals. It was necessary to bring out the white pigskin to finish the practice.

To the regulars, this white ball means but one thing—hard work and plenty of them from now until the close of the season.

With the game only a few days off, the Petrels are in for three more grueling practice periods this week before they embark Thursday night for Charleston to battle the Citadel Saturday afternoon. They will take on the crew of defeated Rats this afternoon and scrimmaging with them until Robertson is satisfied with the showing of his cohorts. Wednesday will probably be a repetition of this afternoon's activities and the last skirmish of the week before departing.

It has not been announced just who will make the trip yet, but no matter who the selections are, they are determined to return home Sunday night with a Citadel victory neatly tucked under their belt.

Varsity Selection.

Coach Robertson's varsity selection for the Monday afternoon practice was as follows: Hutson at center, Captain Guthrie and Goldsmith, guards; Sims and Perkins, tackles; Clement and Burford on the wings.

In the backfield there was Garlington, quarter; White and Wall, halves; Shepherd, full.

Pool Ready in November.

The new swimming pool at Bowdoin college, the gift of Cyrus H. X. Curtis, will be ready for use in November. It measures 75 by 20 feet. A gallery will seat 600 spectators. It is connected with the college gymnasium by a small building which will contain showers.

Two Schools Are Admitted To G. I. A. A.

Fulton and Newnan High Are New Members of Association.

Fulton High school, of Atlanta, and LaGrange High school were made members of the Georgia Interscholastic Athletic association at a meeting of that body Monday night at the Y. M. C. A.

The admittance of these two schools increases the number of members to 18 and brings in two schools that are always well represented in athletics.

Following admittance of Fulton and LaGrange came a long and heated discussion regarding eligibility of players. R. K. White, director of athletics at Fulton High, and former head of the University School for Boys, was reelected president of the G. I. A. A. in which capacity he has served for several years. Red Harrison, coach at Monroe A. & M., was reelected vice president. R. K. Tanner, of Lanier High, Macon, was reelected secretary and H. J. Stegeman, of the University of Georgia, was reelected arbiter of the association. Mr. Stegeman was elected to that position last winter upon resignation of Coach W. A. Alexander, of Georgia Tech.

Routine business of the association was gone through and Newnan High school was officially awarded the 1927 championship trophy for winning the track and field meet of the G. I. A. A. held in Newnan on May 6.

The following schools were represented: Newnan, Tech High, Atlanta; Boys' High, Atlanta; Lanier High, Macon; University School, Atlanta; Monroe A. & M., Savannah High school, Griffin High school, Riverside Military academy, Gainesville; and Fulton High, Atlanta.

Buenos Aires, October 10.—(AP)—Jose R. Capablanca was defeated by Alexander Alekhine, in the eleventh game of the world chess championship series, after the sixty-sixth move tonight, when the champion gave up play.

KNOW YOUR JACKETS

BY BEN COTHRAN

Another sophomore who is likely to make himself heard about in the next season or so, Russell at present is barking signals on one of Hank Bjorkman's team of Devils. He's a hard worker and makes a good job of his field directing. He came all the way from the Tilton school at Tilton, N. H., to play on Tech's freshman team last year. Russell is 20 years old, scales around 5 feet 11 inches in height and packs a goodly allotment of poundage. He has speed and is steady under fire. Watch out for more about this young man.

Abelson Hopes To Bring More Fighters Here

Berlenbach-Lohman Go Designated as "Feeler" for More Big Fights.

Paul Berlenbach's impending visit to Atlanta and other southern cities is something of an investigation of pugilistic affairs in the south. If Berlenbach's fight with Joe Lohman at the city auditorium Thursday night is anything resembling a financial success Matchmaker Max Abelson is confident that in the near future he will be able to persuade some of the leading scrappers of the country to parade their listic ability in the ring at the city auditorium.

Berlenbach is fighting here on a guarantee and hence does not have to worry about the size of house, yet if it is a large one he naturally will make a good report when he returns to New York and exchanges fight chatter.

But also is anxious to learn for himself just how much truth there is in the reports that have been given out on southern fans, since the memorable mix-up at both precedents followed Mike McGuire's fight with Young Stribling at Columbus a few years ago. When Mike returned east he circulated the report that he had been threatened by the Ku Klux Klan and goodness knows what else.

What Fans Want.

Serious-minded folks failed to take any stock in such wild and unfounded rumors and Berlenbach will not be surprised to discover that Atlanta fight fans are similar to those of New York and other points in that they desire nothing but plenty of action. Fighters who supply that in their Atlanta engagements need have no fears concerning their reception.

Since his New York triumph over Young Stribling, Berlenbach has been informed that southern fans have the impression that Young Stribling was not given his best of it in his fight with Lohman. Berly hopes to convince the Atlanta fans in particular that his victory over Strib was earned on his own merits.

The truth of it is that Berlenbach would like nothing better than to fight Stribling right here in his home town, in that when he signed with Matchmaker Max Abelson for this Atlanta match, he did not know but what Strib would furnish the opposition.

How Berlenbach's career fell through when Manager Walk Miller refused a good offer to put Stribling in here against Berlenbach, Walk claims, is a matter of record. Berly did not offer him enough money for Stribling's services.

Joe Lohman, promoters of the show believe, is good enough to extend Berlenbach and is a tough scraper.

The ten-round semi-windup of the Thursday night show presents Larry Chivers, the junior lightweight champion of the south, in action. Larry has been waging persistent campaigns in other rings, but has not appeared here in a year. He will be pitted against Spike Webb.

Victorious Cadets Welcomed Home

Blacksburg, Va., October 10.—(AP)—It was a noisy and prolonged welcome that the town of Blacksburg and 1,100 Virginia Polytechnic institute cadets gave today to the football team of that institution, home from the east where on Saturday it triumphed over Colgate.

After the first long blast of whistles, horns and fireworks had blended with cheers, formal welcome was extended the Gobblers on behalf of the faculty and military staff of the school by Major W. M. Chapin, followed by a popular and more informal speech of greeting from the lips of J. J. "Pop" Owens, the college steward and idol of the cadet corps.

Preparations for the lavish welcome had begun early in the morning when, with clocks set half an hour ahead, the more than a thousand cadets had risen at daybreak in order to be on hand when the bus brought the team from the station.

Sport Hallahan Cops Lynbrook

New York, October 10.—(AP)—Sport Hallahan, the favorite, captured the Lynbrook handicap, five-furlong sprint, in today's feature at Jamaica. He finished second and Paragon third. The race was worth $3,800 and the time was 1:08 2-5. Eleven horses went to the post.

The Greenlee Stables' Tip Top, carrying 98 pounds, won the feature at Laurel, nosing out Prince of Wales in the six-furlong dash.

What'll I Do was third. It was a two-horse race all the way, with Prince of Wales looking like the winner until the last stride. The winner paid $13.90. The time was 1:12 4-5.

The pageant purse for 2-year-olds at Thoroughbred went to Thymon, who stopped six furlongs in 1:15 4-5. Partake was second and Anushka third.

Hawthorne's fourth race was taken by Hot Time, whose time for six furlongs was 1:14 2-5. Sixty beat out Winifred for the place.

HAWK-EYE-ING SPORTS

•BY DICK HAWKINS.

An International Hero.

Today all Atlanta will turn to hero-worship.

Perhaps some will call it by a different name and perhaps there are some who would resent such a term being applied to the ovation Atlanta will extend to the "Lone Eagle of the Air," Charles A. Lindbergh.

But when the world becomes so cynical that hero-worship is no longer a human trait, then the flying wheels of progress will slow and stop under the brakes of human indifference.

Remember not so long ago when you were in the grammar grades and some big boy in the high school starred on his football team or some other lad led his debating team to victory over the bitter rival school? Remember how you were fully convinced that in the person of that big boy was something almost saintly? Remember how you contemplated suicide when you found perhaps that the big boy was no more than human and subject to the same temptations as yourself?

You have never changed. Today you are looking at the "big boy" in the school and worshipping him just as you did that other many years ago. And there is nothing of which to be ashamed. Whether or not you admit this feeling it is there—just as it should be.

This afternoon probably 100,000 persons will be at Candler field and along the route of the parade to get a glimpse of "Lucky Lindy." Why? Curiosity? Yes, we grown-ups call it curiosity, but it is not the kind of curiosity which packs the "freak show" at a circus. It savors strongly of that hero-worship which played such a part in all our lives when we were wishing for our first long trousers.

Does it look strange for a sports writer to turn to such philosophy? Well, after all, the theme is not so far removed from the realm of sports. We do not hesitate to say that we will cherish any good look we can get at Lindy because he is the greatest sportsman of the age.

In all sports confidence is the essence of success. Whether that sport be football, baseball or flying from New York to Paris across the wastes of northern seas. What a great athlete Charlie Lindbergh would have made if he had turned his brain and body toward some football goal rather than toward Paris and everlasting fame.

Every day some athlete is "doing his Lindbergh" and he is acclaimed by scores, hundreds of thousands, as the case may be. Each in his own right and sphere is a hero. Lindy is an international hero. He played his game with the hardest opponent—Death—and won by a touch-down.

All Are Silent As Cuyler Leaves

Pittsburgh, October 10.—(AP)—Hazen ("Kik") Cuyler, speedy Pirate outfielder, central figure in baseball's latest controversy, left Pittsburgh for Flint, Mich., his home, late today. The day failed to bring any announcement as to whether Cuyler would be traded as a result of the differences that sprang up during the season between the outfielder and Manager Donie Bush. All parties to the dispute maintained silence on the case which has puzzled Pirate fans ever since Cuyler was benched in favor of Clyde Barnhart.

WOMEN'S GOLF TOURNAMENT HERE FRIDAY

Members of the Atlanta Woman's Golf association will hold a one-day tournament Friday over the course of the Capital City club. Many prominent women golfers of Atlanta have entered the tournament, and a large list of entrants is looked for when play begins Friday.

The tournament will be played over 18 holes and at medal play. The golfers of the association will play for the Candler park trophy, and every member is urged to register in time for the tournament.

Dundee, Canzoneri Fight on Friday

(By Leased Wire to The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

New York, October 10.—Johnny Dundee and Tony Canzoneri will fight 15 rounds at 125 pounds in the new Madison Square Garden on October 14. Because the ancient Scotch Wop has official status in this state this fight will not be labelled officially as a world's featherweight bout, but regardless of how it is billed or what the state athletic commission may think about it, the winner will be the undisputed world's champion in name and in fact.

Dundee did not lose his title in the ring. If he can make the weight and is licked when he tries to come back, Canzoneri will be the crown-wearer.

Jackets Start Hard Practice For Tide Game

Bob Durant Out of Harness With Injury in Back.

BY BEN COTHRAN.

Ship's carpenters—in the form of four Tech coaches—bused themselves Monday afternoon giving the good ship Yellow Jacket a careful inspection and making repairs to prepare the vessel for another deep-water engagement when Alabama's Crimson Tide rolls out on Grant field next Saturday afternoon.

Only one casualty assuming major proportions marked the Tulane game. Bob Durant turned up Monday, out of uniform. Durant, who handled the Tech team in brilliant fashion at quarterback last Saturday, received a hard blow in the small of the back, and it is thought, cracking a rib. The injury doesn't seem to be very serious and Durant will probably be in shape for next Saturday's game.

With Lindbergh coming today, and making a speech at Grant field this afternoon, the regular playing field Monday was given over to a bunch of carpenters and radio men erecting a stand in mid-field, while the Jacket squad worked out on the practice field behind the temporary stands.

Long Workout Held.

The activities started about 3:30 Monday and as usual, lasted until after dark. Hank Bjorkman's Devils were busy learning Alabama plays and formations which they will probably present to the varsity this afternoon in scrimmage, dummy or otherwise. At any rate, whatever kind of scrimmage is held, the varsity will be on the defensive the major portion of the time.

But the problem this week isn't so much stopping Alabama plays, as stopping that Alabama line. Reports from Birmingham are to the effect that Alabama's line performed well, despite the mud and soggy of the field last Saturday. And outweighing Tech considerably with all prospects for a dry field, it's going to take plenty of headwork, plenty of rushing and plenty of charging to do anything at all with that row of Crimson giants Saturday.

Don Miller revived his class in gymnastics Monday and sent the squad through a long session of setting-up exercises such as featured the training period. A couple of hands got stepped on in Saturday's game with Tulane and of course, there are some "Charley horses," but outside of Durant's injury everyone else seems to be okay.

Partial Recovery Follows Sharp Reaction in 'Stocks

while for September of 1926 the prices were at the high for the year. The talk on oil shares at the present time is decidedly bearish.

Cotton had a bad break on the change of only 14,000 bales in the government crop report published after the close of the market Saturday. The street had been expecting an increase of some 400,000 bales.

Sterling made a new high for the year and a new high since 1914. This is usually the time of the year when sterling declines because of selling pressure to raise dollars to pay for seasonal purchases of goods in this market. Usually this is the time of year when gold moves in our direction. With sterling at its present high level, however, the outlook is for gold exports. The strength in sterling reflects the higher interest rates for money ruling abroad. In brief, the higher interest rates abroad are attracting funds from here in sufficient volume to more than offset the payments being made in connection with seasonal purchases of goods here. We have more gold here than we need and more than is good for us. Nevertheless, the bull stock market has been based on easy money, reflecting our large gold holdings. Hence the stock market at the existing high price level is extremely sensitive to any change in our gold holdings.

Trade Volume Down.

Reports from various key industries continue to pile up evidence that general trade is below the volume of last year. From the viewpoint of Melvin A. Taylor, president of the American Bankers' association, here is what the slowing down in general trade means: "Certainly we cannot look forward to an unbroken continuation of expansion."

Most people are willing to admit that something in the nature of a financial crisis is inevitable. But

What happened seven years ago was the result of our war and after-war experience. There was enormous accumulation of unsold high-priced goods being carried on borrowed high-priced money. Similar conditions existed in 1907, marking the end of what un-

1920-1907 Meant.
Mr. Taylor does not mention 1920 and 1907. Obviously, however, he had in mind those years and other years of financial strain. He says we need not fear a recurrence of conditions which in the past have plunged us into the depths of violent financial panics because business men have greater opportunities than ever before to become real experts in their lines.

The progress of research and education enables them to become masters in their fields. To business men in key positions there is now available as never before, trustworthy statistical work by which they can guide their production and distribution schedules with a view to greater coordination between supply and demand."

Mr. Taylor believes that the normal state of business today is not a stationary condition, or an unbroken rise in prosperity followed by a panic such as 1920 or 1907 but a certain amount of variation in expanding or contracting activity which will permit adjustment of the existing better balance between production and consumption. This is the viewpoint held by many bankers and business men.
